NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "Yeah I just ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I don't know, don't know."

PD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I usually go, um, up the other end but there's never anywhere to park here it's much easier."

PD: "Yeah. Ah."

NG: "So can you just, um, order me a large skinny flat white?"

PD: "Large skinny flat white."

NG: "Thanks."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 36 Sec 10)

NG: "And you've got to say table 33."

PD: "Oh okay."

NG: "...(inaudible)... remember."

(PD goes to order coffees / background noise)

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 39 Sec 34)

NG: "It'll be Murphy's Law the minute that I take my jacket off the sun goes in."

PD: "(laughs) I thought you were off smokes."

NG: "No."

PD: "No."

NG: "Since when? Last time I saw you."

PD: "All the ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Last time I saw you I was, I was still smoking."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "So did you bring lots of your friends with you today?"

PD: "...(inaudible)... I took ...(inaudible)...Perth"

NG: "Perth?"

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Why?"

PD: "They're all over me like a rash."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 40 Sec 00)

NG: "Well. I, um, I suspect, I suspect that you would be, um, hot property even now."

PD: "I'll be well and truly, um, you got a pen?" — Writes "ACC" on paper.

NG: "Yeah. What a lawyer would go around without a pen or a business card? Why were you in Perth?"

PD: "Oh I actually just went over, just for a social visit with a friend over there, um."

NG: "Not for work or anything?"

PD: "No, no, no, no which was, it was all, um, a bit of a, caught up with Dennis LINEHAN over there."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "And."

NG: "Is he, is he still working Paul?"

PD: "He's suspended."

NG: "Oh okay. I ran, I ran into him, um, around the traps once or twice but he hasn't really, either he hasn't been in a position to speak to me or doesn't want to speak to me."

Writes Acc during this conv.

PD: "No he always talks about you, um."

NG: "No but I mean wherever, whoever I've been with or whatever. Oh okay."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 41 Sec 00)

PD: "Mm. And, um, have you?" — Reference to Acc.

NG: "No."

PD: "Because." — Points to Wit F to indicate the questioning relates to Wit F.

NG: "No."

PD: "Um."

NG: "Mm, mm. But, um."

PD: "But I did say something, ya know, Tony HARGREAVES."

NG: "Did you see Tony last week?"

PD: "Yes he came with me. He was here 'til 8.30 at night."

NG: "Mm? Did he what?"

PD: "...(inaudible)... 8.30 at night."

NG: "I didn't even know they sat 'til then."

PD: "They don't normally, but the judge ...(inaudible)..."

Conv. re Act S.L never mentioned by PD - written on paper why? - if for legal advice doesn't he verbally tell F.

NG: "Often, um, I've been there a few times, um, representing people."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And, um, quite often they've, they do them in an order best known to themselves for whatever reason."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And that generally, sometimes it means that they. Like I've been going over a certain time with someone and they will come out and say you've, you've just got to wait we're two hours behind or whatever."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Because they, in theory I presume that they wanted answers from someone else before the next person."

PD: "You'd expect that."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "That's the way they certainly operate it, yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 42 Sec 00)

NG: "But he did, he said to me some time ago that, um, ah, that they keep dragging you into places and asking ..."

PD: "Nine times."

NG: "... the same questions."

PD: "Nine times."

NG: "Fuckin' hell."

PD: "Nine times I've been. About every three months."

NG: "God."

PD: "I had a prepared speech this time around."

NG: "So Denis is suspended? why? Is it over that stuff, um?"

PD: "That OPI stuff with me? No. It's over, um, the silly bugger, I when, when they were looking at him, well looking at me and then decided well fuck you Dennis we want to take you down."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Because you're clearly more of a mate to Paul DALE than you are to the Police Force. Well that's basically what it came down to. Dennis is really the only, it was the last sebastion (sic) or whatever words you want to use, of loyalty to me where he would ring me twice a week and say this ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Are you. Or are you okay or whatever."

PD: "Yeah are you okay?"

NG: "Yep."

PD: "How are things going mate? Fuckin' cunts and rah, rah, rah. And they're the phone calls that they play to the media just to try and, you know."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 43 Sec 00)

Ref to meeting b/t PD + F also private OPI hearing, where PD ask F if she has been to OPI. PD says he was questioned about interference b/c Para inv.

NG: "That's the thing about that 'cause last time I saw you it was about, ah, I can't remember when it was, but it was about a month or so later wasn't it that."

PD: "Yeah but I."

Public hearings, OPI.

*check phones for [illegible] PD [illegible] F [illegible] OPI

NG: "That it was in the paper."

PD: "Yeah exactly they did that media, debacle."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Um, yeah."

NG: "So they suspended him for what exactly?"

PD: "No his phone was off and clearly ...(inaudible)... His young bloke who just turned 18 and got his driver's licence."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Pranged his missus car."

NG: "Right."

PD: "In the driveway. Like no real major damage but, so."

NG: "Insurance claim."

PD: "Exactly. And he goes, I'll just say I was driving, on the phone, to his"

NG: "So what he's suspended for Perverting the Course of Justice or something?"

PD: "Ah, no Obtaining Financial Advantage by Deception or, ya know, something like that through the insurance company."

NG: "Because he's saying that he was the driver?"

PD: "I don't know what it was."

NG: "Would it matter though if that's? I presume if his kid's only."

PD: "He thinks he is going to beat it and I hope he does."

NG: "But just say if his kid's only,

NG: um, if his kid's one of those at that age where the, um, insurance policy's in the parents' name."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Which is usually the case."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "What difference does it make?"

PD: "Yeah. Look, um."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 44 Sec 00)

NG: "Is Tony acting for him?"

PD: "I don't think so. I'm not a hundred percent sure on that to be honest."

NG: "Oh because it wouldn't be a police thing."

PD: "Yeah, yeah look I don't know who he's got representing him because he wasn't able to use Tony who's doing that OPI fuckin' thing, cause I"

NG: "Yep conflict, yep."

PD: "Yeah and all that. So he ended up having to use some other solicitor and whether that person's staying with him through this, um, I'm not a hundred percent sure."

NG: "No what I meant was he...."

PD: "He seems pretty confident he's going to beat it."

NG: "He may not be entitled to, um, the funding."

PD: "Yeah he mightn't be because it's fairly."

NG: "Because it's not in the course of whatever, um, the criteria."

PD: "Yeah well I tell you what I'm a little disappointed with Tony on two, two levels. Um, firstly I mean you understand the workings of the ACC."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And they reckon they're going to lock me up if they, if I fuckin' if I tell anyone anything so, and I know they will. But, and Tony sort of said to me after it he didn't want me to come and see you, he said, I know you're a lawyer and staunch person."

not my lawyer

NG: "Yep."

PD: "But it's not in your best interests to go and speak to anyone about this and I went, yep no worries Tony. I play Tony with a straight bat. But I would never ever not fuckin' go and tell my friend or run."

Reference to F.

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 45 Sec 03)

NG: "But the reality is."

PD: "I'm not going to be like those ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "But, Paul, the reality is that, um, you are entitled to talk to a lawyer about it."

- means PD is entitled to ostain legal advice in reference to THARCHAES COMMENT not to tell anyone. She doesn't say but you can talk to me because I'm your lawyer

PD: "I tried to, I, I claimed privilege several times in relation to me and you about that. They played a number of phone calls between me, you and Carl WILLIAMS."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Back in 2004. Years, you know, years old and they were just shit, they were just, there's nothing to them. All they're trying to show is that I had a relationship with Carl that's what they're trying to say. Carl's clear and made a very in-depth statement, against me, um."

NG: "Accurate or not? Or you haven't got the statement so you don't know?"

PD: "Very accurate."

NG: "Very accurate? Oh, okay."

PD: "Very accurate to the point of every single time we met he seems to have had documented it, as ~~in he's got~~ if they know (unintelligible)." "a diary" "or diary notes" F remembers PD said that

NG: "But that might, um, be because of, um, independent records. I mean if they're telephone intercepts."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 46 Sec 02)

PD: "Yeah, look."

NG: "But."

PD: "Look no there was some things that came out that clearly only him and me knew, um, but, um."

NG: "Why would he have kept ah, a record of them?" (refer to diary earlier)

PD: "No he hasn't, no he hasn't it's just what he's gleaned from memory. It was things like, you know, remember things like locations where we might have met and, um, you know, like in Noodle Box over in some street in ...(inaudible)... you know things like that."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "But ...(inaudible)... fuckin' know that unless someone else with him has told, um, you know, met at, met at a pool and went for a swim and talked in the pool sort of thing. There's only ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I suppose there's the, um, there's the possibility that, um, if, if he's like anyone else in the prison system he's talked to other people."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "About everything in his life."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And they in turn have made."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And they've made statements."

PD: "Look I've always, if this is not the first time I've been asked about it and they've."

Male: "...(inaudible)..."

PD: "Yeah that's right and also PII [redacted] he's been rolling the years now and like and they were always with him or, you know, like I never saw them but no doubt they were in a car or whatever nearby so they would have known, oh yeah."

NG: "Hey look I think some of the evidence that's, um, come out in some of these court cases and with PII [redacted] a good example to use, ah, he really came unstuck in, I can't remember which committal it was, but I wasn't part of it."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "But, um, just from general talk around the traps. The evidence that he was giving was not, um, evidence of things that he had observed first hand or anything it was."

PD: "Something ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "But it was worse than that because he put himself, the way he made the statement was [redacted] whatever it was."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "When it was really him, um, who [redacted]

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... and then had made the statement ..."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "... to get the benefit from it."

PD: "Um, but this statement."

NG: "But you'd be entitled to claim privilege."

PD: "Well I did claim privilege I said when they brought up calls to you and it was particularly these phone calls, um, and they were, you were initially talking to Carl and asking him to come and meet."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 48 Sec 02)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Well it sounded like ...(inaudible)... and it was loud it was. The first one I think was Carl talking to ah, [redacted] and I didn't even recognise the first lot of phone calls, I don't know why they played them to me. They weren't me, they weren't you, I think they were just trying to see whether I recognised the voices or something I don't know. Anyway I didn't, it meant nothing to me."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I can't help them. And then they played you with Carl sounds like. I didn't know who, whether it was [redacted] or Carl, anyway. Then they played me and Carl and I said, well that sounds I like a very drunk Paul DALE and Carl WILLIAMS."

NG: "Was it night time or day time?"

PD: "Yeah it was night time and there was a like each call was like about an hour and a half."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "About three or four phone calls. But that was just simply, how ya going mate, come down and see us."

NG: "Why is that, um, why is it considered such an issue? I thought that you had."

PD: "I tell you what it is, I tell you what, I tell you what their theory is. They reckon that somehow they've got this, someone's made a statement saying that I paid, um, this is the latest, this is the latest. This latest one that I was at last week was all the same stuff all over again."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 49 Sec 07)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "But that statement to Carl was made some time ago. It's been slightly, ah, expanded on."

NG: "Right."

PD: "Whether that's through ACC hearings and they've got more out of Carl and, so therefore it's been ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Well it is amazing these blokes they manage to remember more as time goes on."

PD: "Exactly, you know, and, um, anyway it's, ah, it's been expanded on and there's a more few allegations put to me. But the allegations aren't criminal activity, they are purely, they are purely trying to show that I had a relationship with Carl that is a lot more than just a policeman's profession, right."

NG: "But I thought, um, my, um."

PD: "Which is not illegal."

NG: "No. But I was going to say I thought that the fact of you having contact with him was a publicly known thing anyway, Paul."

PD: "I've never denied that we had contact and all that I said look may or may not have IR'ed every contact with him."

NG: "But."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 50 Sec 00)

PD: "My contact with him after I was suspended. I said, look I was very bitter with the way I was treated by the ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... Victoria Police Force during that couple of years ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... that I fought vehemently and blah, blah, blah and. I said, I wouldn't have given two hoots about what I was doing during that time whether the Police Force knew or didn't know."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I certainly wouldn't have been notifying them. They'd thrown me to the wolves and, you know, I had no loyalty towards them at all and I never have, will have again. I fuckin' despise them, I despise you people. I mean I get very angry now I've had enough of it. I said, nine times I've been"

NG: "I bet Tony, I bet Tony wouldn't have seen it that way."

PD: "No look he's, couple of times like I said I, um, even with those calls, no ...(inaudible)... there's no allegations about me or you other than purely, um, um, purely these phone calls. And I said, they wanted to know whether you were a contact between me and Carl, ya know. Nup, never been the case fuckin' or did I know that you had numerous mobile phones, I said, nah. Um, did I know that you had phones provided to you by, um, ah, that last drug job we did at Dublin Street, what was his name?"

he knew what I got phones from Ah.

And telling me what he's said/ been asked incase I get a subpoena (b/c already ..... I haven't)

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 51 Sec 10)

Add in sIment:
He knew b/c I told him.
He was paranoid re: TIS's on my phone & his.

NG: "Oh Ahmed?"

PD: "Ahmed. Did I know that he was providing you with phones, I said, nah how would I know that? They asked me a couple of female names that obviously the phones were ...(inaudible)... I presume something I don't know. I just said, look those names don't mean anything." ?

NG: "I don't know I've never registered ..."

PD: "Yeah, thought so, yeah."

NG: "... a phone myself so I wouldn't have a clue what name."

PD: "So, um, I wasn't able to help them with any of that, that, that enquiry."

NG: "But that's just a, so what is the theory,"

PD: "Okay so."

NG: "So you paid who?"

PD: "So the theory is that I met with Rod COLLINS."

NG: "Right."

PD: "In a coffee shop near, um, ah, a solicitor in the city, ah, ...(inaudible)... few of the boys big fat wog."

NG: "Oh, Theo MATGAZIS?"

PD: "Yeah so near his office wherever that is in I don't know Collins Street or wherever."

NG: "Yeah I know, the Little Collins."

PD: "Okay, right."

NG: "That's the office that, um, Carl bought him."

PD: "Okay, so there must be."

NG: "Well allegedly."

PD: "Right and there must be, um, a coffee shop nearby there or whatever and apparently I met, or a bar or something."

NG: "Right."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 52 Sec 00)

PD: "And that's where I met with Rod COLLINS. But I met him there and I paid him 400 grand to do the HODSONs."

NG: "$400,000."

PD: "$400,000 yeah."

NG: "Right. And where did you get the $400,000 from?"

PD: "I'd love to, I wish I 400 grand, ya know, I'd be. So anyway so that's the, that's the bottom line what I got out of that latest hearing, that's their latest you beaut information."

NG: "Well I haven't heard, um, I haven't heard that one before. And why did they say?"

PD: "No that's the first I've heard of that one."

NG: "Why did they say $400,000? Where's that, where's that evidence from?"

PD: "I don't know, no idea. There's evidence before this, this Commission that, um, you met him there, you, ah,either offered him or paid him $400,000 to do the job. I said, I've never met Rod COLLINS in my life, don't know him, can't help you. And I haven't, never met him in my life."

NG: "Well hang on if, um, if they're saying they've got that evidence, they're saying they've got that sworn evidence?"

PD: "Mm."

NG: "Well did Tony or someone ask what, you know, where? Because you said."

PD: "Tony didn't ask a single question he just sat there the whole day. The only time he, um, the only time he got involved at all was when I tried to claim prof.... privilege against any conversations that me and you had."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 53 Sec 06)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Or any contact we've had. They wouldn't accept that. We then ...(inaudible)... two adjournments during this period like I went out and spoke to Tony and said, nah I'm not talking about fucking, my conversations ..."

NG: "Yep."

Well mate you're going to have to

PD: "... with Nicola. She's my legal representation, um, I'm not going to fuckin' discuss it, mate you don't have to. The questions they're asking were ...(inaudible)... I was privy to oh ..."

you can claim privedge on.

Note I don't say yes/no to his assertion

NG: "But then."

PD: "... they did and I said, yeah, yep, yep."

NG: "But oh."

PD: "There's nothing, nothing, there was nothing anyway it was just really, I just didn't want to ...(inaudible)... I said fuck you ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I wouldn't, I'm not even particular concerned about ..."

PD: "No."

NG: "... that Paul because, um."

PD: "It was never."

NG: "Look it'd be a different situation if, ah, I mean all bullshit aside, it would be a different situation if in the course of either when you were a police officer or not, um, you've ever done anything, ah, inappropriate as in, you know, looked up someone for me or. But there never was any of that."

PD: "No, no."

NG: "We started off with a very antagonistic relationship."

PD: "Yep. Yep."

Listen

NG: "Um, and I."

PD: "...(inaudible)... bad guy."

NG: "Even I remember, um."

PD: "I."

NG: "And understand my, my, I've got a, you know, I've got a clear memory of some things."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Ah, but no memory of other things and then it's like jumbled up."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "There should be a large skinny flat white as well."

Waitress: "Oh yeah that's coming."

NG: "Oh good. My, um, oh from like see I can remember, um, that must be yours."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "I can remember, um, for example, at the time that I got really sick when I had my stroke, I can remember that I was, um, in a lot of contact with, um, [redacted] and Carl because I was doing [redacted]. Remember that, that was when [redacted] and whatever at first."

PD: "Oh yeah, yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 55 Sec 00)

NG: "And then ultimately we pleaded and we got what we wanted ...(inaudible)... and I can, um, like I can remember that case that that's what I was doing but as to the days or weeks leading up to then I've got a very hit and miss."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Um, if someone reminded me ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... of it I might remember."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "But, um."

PD: "As soon as I said to them when I was there this time I said, um, I'm almost in an impossible position now to answer in the affirmative or negative way because we've been going for over five years now. I've been dragged into these enquiries nine times let alone."

NG: "Are you allowed to say that because they're different enquiries. You're technically not allowed."

PD: "Well the last one was a public one with the OPI. And I said, look but I'm, I don't know if I'm technically allowed to say it but if they were going to try. Look what am I going to do? I mean they've ruined, they've tried, they've tried to ruin my life for the last five years. Every three months I'm dragged into one of these enquiries now whether it's, this is the second time here at the ACC the last time was March 2007."

NG: "Yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 56 Sec 00)

PD: "It's been quite some time since the last time you had me here. I said, in between that time now what you've got to understand is I've been to four other, five other enquiries where I've had to give evidence."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, I've been forced to give evidence. Not, not only have I walked out of those places being told that this was all top secret rah, rah, rah and its in the fuckin' Age newspaper the two days later."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "Or it's on the front page of the Herald."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "Front page of the Herald Sun. It's in the, it's on the Channel 6 news. I've got helicopters landing behind my business and tapping me on the shoulder and Channel 7, 9, 10, you know, when all of a sudden, you know, there's an reward put out and my name's mentioned in these. I said, I knew I was going to be coming back here when youse. When you offer a million dollars, an indemnity and mention my name."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "Of course I'm going to be dragged back here, you know, how ridiculous."

NG: "But apart."

PD: "I said ...(inaudible)... and I said, look I've read that much about myself, I've had that many allegations put to me, I've had that many names thrown at me. I said, I don't know how many people I know any more. I don't know whether it jiggled something in my memory purely because it was put to me at an enquiry."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "Or whether it was something I read in the paper, I really have no, don't know but I don't know. I'm almost in an impossible position and this is now become a memory test. This is purely bringing me down and hoping that I change, I tell a different fuckin' version of events."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 57 Sec 07)

NG: "Yep, yep."

PD: "Because they're asking the same bloody questions every single time, little bit extra here and there, and I was waiting for the little bit extra this time. The only little bit extra was three phone calls played between me, you and Carl."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Which all they were were fuckin' how ya going blah, blah, blah and ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I never remember."

PD: "If it were ...(inaudible)... some of them nice fuckin' really, really ...(inaudible)... hardly understand one of them and fuckin' anyway. I said, look yeah that could be me, may not be me, I'm not denying."

NG: "When were they done? What, what?"

PD: "2004."

NG: "Must have been obviously must have been before, um, before July."

PD: "Yeah possibly. Anyway so um."

NG: "No must have been because after that, after I got sick, I didn't go anywhere."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "That must be."

PD: "Yeah, yeah well that's right. Oh ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "So with the, with the allegations of."

PD: "Getting back to, I just want to cover the one thing with Tony, two things with Tony."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "One was he said he's a very good friend of yours rah, rah, rah but he didn't want me to come and ~~say anything~~ about this ACC ...(inaudible) He said he didn't ~~because~~ there wasn't any need for it."

(Track 1 Hrs 00 Min 58 Sec 01)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I said I understand I don't think there is either and I went away thinking about that for a few days and I thought, no I'm going to be in Melbourne on the weekend fuck it. In fact I think it's much ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah. Yeah."

PD: "Fuck it, I'm not that type of person, I'm. And he knows that so he fuckin', he's just trying to do the right thing I guess but I would never fuckin'."

NG: "But perhaps he didn't want to put you to put him in the position ..."

PD: "Yep, yep."

NG: "... from where he saw it."

Add into s/ment

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Cause he, he ..."

which he would if we had a proper lawyer/clients rlship.

PD: "But he doesn't know I'm doing this."

NG: "... might run into this, no but he might run into difficulties himself ..."

not acting ∴ TH cannot speak to me about his evidence

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... if he was to tell me."

PD: "Yeah so, um, he's, um, he was very adamant he wants 'cause he reckons the ACC are very, very tight and to get him kicked out then, you know, they."

Confirmation.

NG: "That I should expect a summons."

PD: "But, but all the Petra Taskforce boys were in there, in the room so there's a few others knowing there. Yeah I'm surprised you haven't gone in. Let alone what are you, what is it going to be only a couple of phone calls, fuckin' hell and the phone calls were come and see about, you know, about that matter we've got coming up in the brief and whatever, for you, and that was purely work related."

What calls? Not true

NG: "Well I don't, I don't, um, I don't know the full extent of your relationship with him."

PD: "No, no."

NG: "It's not my business."

PD: "No, no. So anyway, um."

NG: "So with the, um, with this."

PD: "So."

NG: "I mean the $400,000 thing, it must be, someone must have made a statement."

PD: "Yeah clearly it's come from someone and I don't. Look and the good thing about it, Nicola, is it's a complete, utter load of crap. I've never been, I've never met Rod COLLINS. I've certainly never had $400,000 to fuckin' to someone to offer anyway. They're right up the wrong alley with that fact and they thought they were in their right well that's what they. And when, when they arrested, when they got charged COLLINS and, ah, they, they are of the opinion that COLLINS is the shooter, they are of the opinion that he did the murders, that I arranged it, um, and that's their theory. It's been their theory for some time and when they offered that million dollars in rewards."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "And OVERLAND said we are very close to making charges, you know."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Making arrests here and charging people and blah, blah, blah, he goes, it's, we've found with cases such as this that when you put people facing serious criminal charges, um, they tend to come out and tell the truth in the end."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 00 Sec 11)

NG: "Hold that thought I'm just going to ask her to see where my coffee is, hang on. Excuse me."

PD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Can you, um, we ordered a coffee 20 minutes ago, large skinny flat white – 33."

PD: "Um."

NG: "Works useless."

PD: "Yeah. And."

NG: "Sorry you were saying what OVERLAND was saying."

PD: "Yeah, and I remember listen to it and reading it and I thought to me-self, if this COLLINS bloke, they think he, they think he's no better off and, say, yeah I'm the shooter and Paul DALE..(inaudible)... that's exactly what they were pointing towards and thinking was going to happen. A couple of weeks later they applied to get him out of prison to put stuff on ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "464 him, yeah."

PD: "Yeah, and they did that and he told them all."

this shows he's keeping watch of Collins.

NG: "Who acts for him?"

later asks me if I've heard anything

PD: "I don't know but he told them all to go and get fucked it was quite funny. And so I think that sort of fucked things. That sort of, that, they were going down a road that they thought, and I don't, as an investigator I know exactly the road they were following and they were thinking this bloke's going to roll. We're going to offer him a ...(inaudible)... offer him the greatest sweeteners of all time."

Consciousness of guilt why keep track of RC if innocent?

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 01 Sec 13)

NG: "Mm."

PD: "And he will roll. And, and then when he didn't roll, 464 him, he'll be ...(inaudible)... he's back inside now, um, fuck it all when really now what do we do now?"

Waitress: "Communication breakdown. What are we waiting for sweet?"

NG: "Large skinny flat white. About 20 minutes you must be making, milking the cow or something."

Waitress: "I don't ...(inaudible)... 'cause there's no docket up there. Large skinny flat white."

PD: "It was with a cappuccino which I've got so yeah. Um, yeah so then there's obviously for a month they had to fuckin' tread water as per where do we go with this and, ah, I think it's got to the stage where fuckin', ACC all these people."

NG: "I'm a, I'm a bit missed, I'm a bit confused."

PD: "Yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 02 Sec 00)

NG: "If, if, maybe it's because of this case, but I would have thought logically you've got to ask they're putting that allegation to you."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And that presumably that, I don't know, sometimes in those hearings they say we have sworn evidence blah, blah, blah."

PD: "Yep, yeah."

NG: "Then, then, um."

PD: "They said that a number of times to get ...(inaudible)... allegations, yeah."

NG: "Well just say hypothetically for the sake of the argument."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "That you did have that arrangement with him."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "And only you and him knew."

PD: "Mm, mm."

NG: "And, um, therefore the only person, the only person who could have made that statement is him. Now if he'd made that statement why aren't you charged?"

PD: "Mm. Yeah that's right."

NG: "Alright or alternatively maybe they."

PD: "It's very similar to the situation, um, Mick GATTO ...(inaudible)... he got all these allegations."

NG: "And public enemy number one. Yep."

PD: "Yeah, all these allegations being put in the media about him that he's organised this hit yet he's not charged."

NG: "Yeah but."

PD: "I mean it's just."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 03 Sec 00)

NG: "He's, he's ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "No, you know, that, that article ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah and the Sunday Herald Sun, yeah."

PD: "That was a bloody big huge double page."

NG: "He doesn't do himself any favours in so far as putting himself in the public eye."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And it's, it's a very difficult position because, um, I think he works on the assumption that he may end up eventually on trial for something."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And all this, um, publicity will put him in a position where he wouldn't necessarily get a fair trial. So he figures he may as well have his say."

PD: "Yeah, yep."

NG: "But in having his say I think he's just further, um, provoking ..."

PD: "Provoking, yeah provoking."

NG: "... the police."

PD: "Yeah, yeah. Yeah I know what you're saying."

NG: "But I don't, anyway look I don't understand if they've got the sworn evidence why aren't you charged? What, I don't, that doesn't make sense to me Paul."

PD: "No I, um, I can only presume that, can you charge me though, can you roll me into a, or out, and you're two number one witnesses Carl WILLIAMS and Rod COLLINS, both, a couple of fuckin' worst criminals in Australia, and let you, there's your evidence ...(inaudible)..."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 04 Sec 07)

NG: "But are you, you're, ah, you're hypothesising that he has made a statement that so Rod COLLINS has said this."

PD: "You're just, that's what you've been told."

NG: "Yeah, but I'm just ...(inaudible)... saying you're if."

PD: "I don't know. I don't know where that story's come from."

NG: "Oh you've milked the cow, thanks."

Waitress: "Sorry about that."

NG: "That's okay. I don't know."

PD: "I really couldn't see Rod COLLINS making that statement purely because, ah, again Rod COLLINS and I haven't fuckin' met him ever in his life. I think if it was a situation where he did know me and met me a few times it makes a bit easier to make that story up like that. But when you've never met a person ever in your life, don't know anything about them, ah, I don't know. I don't know it makes it a bit difficult to."

NG: "Well."

PD: "I don't know. He's an old time crook so I don't know whether he's still got the old time values. A lot of them haven't."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 05 Sec 00)

NG: "I don't, I don't, um, I don't know him."

PD: "No either do I."

NG: "I don't know whether, if someone showed me."

PD: "But that appears to be, but that appears to be the guts of what happened there last time."

NG: "If someone showed me a picture of him, I mean, I might be able to say whether or not I've met him."

PD: "But the second part of the issues with, ah, Tony is, um, we finally get out of there. Like I said it was about 8/8.30 at night."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "We get out, we turn our mobiles on and he's, he's ...(inaudible)... away."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "As they do and I ring Ditty and tell her that, she's obviously still ...(inaudible)... He gets on the phone and he's got that horse fuckin' inquiry going."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "It obviously came out in the papers during the week."

NG: "The bookmaker thing? Yeah."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Yeah and he's on, well that horse that was treated ...(inaudible)... detected."

NG: "Oh."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Okay."

PD: "I'd say he was involved in that 'cause the fuckin' whole time I was with him walking from Flinders Street where their new offices are all the way back to his place, he was on the phone talking to them about getting together and working out what, you know, the stewards can do and ...(inaudible)... all this sort of stuff. I'm just walking beside him wanting to speak to him about what he thought of."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 06 Sec 00)

NG: "What had just happened, yeah."

PD: "Yeah what just happened. I mean I was under the, I'm, I'm fuckin', I took 15 rounds of fuckin' pretty, pretty hard punches and I'm sort of thinking I'm hoping he's taken notes of all of this because I really want to know what his thoughts are when we get out."

NG: "You're not allowed to take notes."

PD: "No, no."

NG: "You're not allowed to leave with your notes."

PD: "Yeah they took them in. But I mean, you know, mentally he's, he's sitting there listening to it all."

NG: "While it's fresh in his mind, yeah."

PD: "Yeah. Well he copped this phone call and it went the whole way 'til we got to his office, then he gets off the phone and he says, listen I've got to go because my son's broken his arm and he's in hospital and that. Well not in hospital, that didn't just happen it happened a while ago but I've got to go and blah, blah, blah."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "Good to see you again, hope we can sort of, you know. And I went, mate I've just taken 15 rounds of fuckin' allegations that I killed two people and fuckin' all these other allegations along the way of paying fuckin' drug dealers off and getting paid by drug dealers and, um."

NG: "Who else were you supposed to have paid?"

PD: "Yeah I got, I got [redacted] from, ah, ah, from Carl WILLIAMS [redacted] I, um, I."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 07 Sec 02)

NG: "But you weren't allowed to give evidence in the end anyway were you?"

PD: "No, no didn't happen in the end yeah no. And I got $10,000 from, ah, ah, oh what was the name of the crooked a drug dealer from down, ah, St Kilda way when the video and photos went missing from the search of his house."

NG: "Oh my client."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Um, no I know who you mean. My client whose brother, they're brothers."

PD: "He's ...(inaudible)... some bloody."

NG: "Carl is their supplier."

PD: "Ah yeah."

NG: "Is that who you're talking about?"

PD: "Yeah it would be. He, he was living in, ya know, high rise flats ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah the two, Brendan and."

PD: "So apparently I, I actually arranged for video and photos gone missing well I got paid for that. I said to him, I said, do you realise that the video. I knew, I remember that happening, I remember that happening that they were missing."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "You see it wasn't my job, I wasn't part of it or anything like that. They said, well do you realise the video and the photos were found at, ah, David MIECHEL's house?"

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 08 Sec 00)

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "You know I didn't know, I didn't know."

NG: "But yeah that's right."

PD: "I had no idea."

NG: "Yeah that's the."

PD: "That's the first time I've heard that."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "The first time I've heard that."

NG: "But it's been public knowledge."

PD: "Yeah I didn't realise. I mean whether I, seriously it's the first time I've heard that. That took me by surprise and I'm thinking oh you prick you did do that and I knew nothing about it."

NG: "Me and, um, no me and Con. No that doesn't make sense, if he did it why did you get paid?"

PD: "...(inaudible)... Yeah. I mean look they sort of threw that at me as if, well this is, you know, we know. And I'm like well I didn't know that, um."

NG: "That's a bit, um, you know what? That's a little bit, um, that's a little bit unfair not because it was found at his house but because there was someone in that job who was, in my view, ..."

PD: "Well ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "... corrupt and it wasn't you."

PD: "Other names were thrown at me - [redacted]."

NG: "Mm, mm."

PD: "And I went oh the Herald Sun reporter"

NG: "No he's at Purana."

PD: "Who?"

NG: [redacted]

PD: "Oh is he?"

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Okay. Well I got ...(inaudible)... and then I went, they went no, no he works for the Drug Squad. Mm yeah I do know him, yep, I do ...(inaudible)... get along with him quite well. Um, they said, oh I think. They mentioned him and a bit about him whether he was the one that got named for it or something I don't know I've forgotten all the names. But nothing, you know, just other coppers."

NG: "It's just I'm still, um, I'm still trying to think of his name, ah."

PD: "Bloody hell fuckin' ...(inaudible)... So yeah I got to speak to him about that and."

NG: "Oh he's, um."

PD: "It's not the first time either, I've been questioned a few times about him."

NG: "Um, LESSER."

PD: "Yeah LESSER."

NG: "Ian LESSER. That's what I'm thinking. I know I've got his number in my phone."

PD: "Yep. So anyway so I copped, copped the allegation. Um, the majority of, ah, my ...(inaudible)... we've gone over nine times previously so."

NG: "And where were you supposed to have gotten $400,000 from?"

PD: "Yeah I don't know."

NG: "And what did he do with the $400,000?"

PD: "No idea. No idea."

NG: "And what were the circumstances in which you paid it to him?"

PD: "Don't know. The fact that ..."

NG: "Did they?"

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 10 Sec 00)

PD: "... we met at this bar in, in around the corner from what's his name's office. But I, I don't think I've ever been into a bar but look if I have I could have I don't know. But I certainly never met this bloke, I don't know him, never met him."

NG: "Well, you know, you used to be an investigator, how, how could this be made if it's not him talking?"

PD: "Oh someone could have, someone could have alleged that, you know, that DALE and COLLINS used to meet there and ...(inaudible)... You know, it's easy, it's an easy allegation to make."

NG: "Yeah but, Paul, $400,000 is a specific amount."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "And it's, okay, if I'm the person who, if I'm the person who knows about it then I've got to know more details about the how, when, why, ah, more details than that. That doesn't make sense."

PD: "Yeah so look I'm not overly concerned about it. If I should, maybe I should be, maybe I shouldn't be, I don't know. And like I said I don't, I'm not concerned about it because I don't know the fuckin' bloke, never met him in me life. I'd be more concerned about it if he was someone that I had met and had a few dealings with, but I haven't. So I'm thought of thinking."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 11 Sec 00)

NG: "Is it possible that you have met him but don't realise who he is?"

PD: "No, no I don't reckon, no."

NG: "I only say that ..."

PD: "Yeah no."

NG: "... 'cause sometimes I ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... um, I've met people by nickname."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And I don't know who they are 'til."

PD: "They did put a couple of other names to me that he must go by or whatever, but none of them mean anything. No I reckon I'd know, like most people I get to know pretty quickly. You know, I particularly don't reckon I've ever met him. Um, I reckon ...(inaudible)... maybe ...(inaudible)... that's where they reckon the money's coming from, they reckon Carl's taken to 2 to 3 grand, 5 grand pretty much every time we met I think the main thing."

NG: "And how else are you, um, how many times are you supposed to have met him?"

PD: "I don't know exactly, um, probably a good half a dozen occasions they specifically put to me."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "And I met him at these locations, gave him an IR with an informers name on it....(inaudible)... rah, rah. Um, met him."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 12 Sec 00)

NG: "Yeah go on."

PD: "I'm just trying to think whether I know them or not. Um. I really do feel Carl has made a statement."

NG: "Well maybe he's made more than one but."

PD: "It's just for some, some things..."

NG: "Something's what? You're still trying to think of , ah, specifics?"

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Well maybe they've, um, maybe they've."

PD: "Apparently COLLINS had, um, IRs in his possession. I was trying to find out the other day, it didn't come out of the enquiry and ...(inaudible)... no idea"

consciousness of guilt

NG: "Well I was asked about them and I said."

PD: "I wasn't asked anything about them this time, not one single question."

NG: "I was asked about them and I, ah, said, you know, they were, exactly when they were floating around I don't specifically remember but they were everywhere, um, but the, um."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 13 Sec 04)

PD: "this latest leak is a pisser"

NG: "Oh that's not new news."

PD: "Isn't it? Oh."

NG: "I, I acted for most of those people and I tell you I knew they, they made it pretty clear they were getting information prior to when it come out in the paper."

PD: "Okay. Why has it come out now do you reckon? Is it because the Police Force is trying to get these new laws through?"

NG: "I don't know."

PD: "That like let's make these coppers look bad and get these laws pushed through because they were having trouble getting them through?"

NG: "I thought it actually had, um, something to do with someone, um, who had to be extradited from somewhere. That's what my understanding is. Someone is overseas."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And it has come, perhaps come out as a consequence of an extradition application."

PD: "Like that."

NG: "But I don't."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "I don't know."

PD: "No I did read about you, um, ah having to be a witness against ..."

NG: "Oh yeah."

PD: "... MOKBEL or someone?"

NG: "Yeah well."

PD: "What's that about?"

NG: "That is because in."

PD: "Didn't he fuck you over a bit?"

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 14 Sec 00)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "So you can't represent or ...(inaudible)...?"

NG: "Yep well no well I can't act for him anyway."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "So for a number of reasons that, but Con and I take the view that as a consequence of, you know, acting for him at a time when he fled the jurisdiction, we just can't, full stop."

PD: "Yeah, yep."

NG: "And then there are a whole lot of secondary other reasons."

PD: "Yep, yep."

NG: "But."

PD: "So is he happy with that, those reasons?"

NG: "Um."

PD: "How's the relationship?"

NG: "I wouldn't say so much happy because his position where I'm concerned is that he was very dependent upon, um, me and I suppose with hindsight, you know. He's now, look at the mess he's in and what he's facing and if you wound back the clock before he started his relationship with Zara, we had, um, we had negotiated, ah. When I say we, it was Con as well. Had negotiated a position where he could've pleaded guilty to the cocaine importation, um, and the Commonwealth were prepared to say, um, ah, a effective sentence compared to the, what the [redacted] got of that another [redacted]

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 15 Sec 04)

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Cause he'd done 11 months. And the State DPP, which had that the KAYAK mess."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Which they can never prosecute because most of the police have gone from that."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "They, they were prepared to say, um, concurrent time. So, but he was, um, um, great dependency and trust in what the advice he was getting who, um, once she started to act for him, and that was a lot of Carl as well. Because after that I don't think he had any dealings with Carl."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Well that's certainly how I came to meet Carl anyway."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "But he switched to her as a lawyer and then, um, effectively went from a position of contemplating accepting that, and trying to minimise it but accepting that, to a position of, um, being of the belief that he had a defence and that, and are you ready for this? That Con and I just weren't working hard enough. Now how his mind's got switched from one to the other."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 16 Sec 04)

PD: "Mm."

NG: "And so look at now what he's facing and he at least has the capacity to look back and say, God I wish I'd accepted your advice rather than hers. So we, um, he's still."

PD: "How do they? How do they?"

NG: "He's still in contact with me."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "But what that's over, what that whole mess is over now is. When he got arrested in October 2005 and charged with incitement charges, he, remember he was on bail for the cocaine thing at the time, he got arrested, got remanded. Well he participated in a Record of Interview where effectively what he says is, um, ah, 'cause they play him the, they played him some LD conversations of him meeting those, um, Moroccan Arabic speaking undercover police officers. Um, and well it basically says, look yeah okay we're, um, having all these conversations and facing all these orders and I was going to do all this and what was going to happen was when the, when the everything came in and it was sitting on the dock, I was going to ring up and I'd become an informer and I was going to get a discount for my other case. And the Federal Court say to him, oh really, um, did you seek legal advice, um, before you ...(inaudible)... you know, went for this cause of action."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 17 Sec 24)

PD: "Entered into ...(inaudible)... yeah."

NG: "And he said, oh yes of course I did. And he said, I spoke to, and then he names all, all the lawyers at the time. And the cops ask, I mean they are Federal Police, Paul, but they do ask him a series of questions about, did you have meetings, did they take notes, um, that sort of stuff."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "So at the end of, ah, after the interview finishes the police, um, contact Con and myself and other lawyers and ask for a statement, so which my response is, um."

PD: "Yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 18 Sec 00)

NG: "To which my response is, um, my response is,ah."

PD: "Do you want to go for a walk soon?" * Consciousness of guilt

NG: "Nah."

PD: "Nah fair enough."

NG: "Um, if anyone is watching us it makes it look more suspicious."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Um, anyway my response is, of course, any communication I've had with him in relation to anything and I'm not going to, I can't even confirm or deny that it's in relation to that specifically, is, um, subject to privilege and unless he wants to waive privilege, um, I can't make a statement. Um, in any, so, ah, there's been an argument for some time about whether or not in the, in the context of the way he answers questions, he has effectively waived privilege."

I explain concept of L.P.P. Note he doesn't say that's like me & you!

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Now after he disappeared the Commonwealth brought an application, um, obviously to get a warrant issued for that incitement case."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And at that point they jumped up and down and said that they, um, they would be seeking a 56A because we refused to make statements."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Sec 19 Sec 02)

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And what the magistrate said at the time was look it's pointless, um."

PD: "...(inaudible)... remind myself what that was all about in a minute."

NG: "Well the, um, the magistrate basically said look he's not here, if he's in this, if he is alive or you have him in this jurisdiction come back and make this application because otherwise it's premature."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "So it's been bubbling along in the background. And, ah, and so they, their application is, um, it's mis, ah, misconstrued insofar as they are approaching it from the point of view of privilege has already been waived and that's an issue that has to be determined first. Because if, if ultimately a court determines that, I don't, I can't imagine that happening but if it happens, that by reason of the answers he gave privilege was waived, then in theory we could be forced to answer questions or make a statement. But my view for what it's worth is that it's, this is a little bit more political."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 20 Sec 13)

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Ah, and that. You see what doesn't make sense is this, if you, imagine if you were the informant."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And you had this ludicrous Record of Interview."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "What you'd do in terms of running it is you would say, well who cares about the lawyers they're not acting for him in this case anyway."

PD: "Mm, mm."

NG: "Um, let it run."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "Let that idiotic interview be played to a jury."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "And then go to the jury saying, he had the option."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "Of confirming all this."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "He chose not to."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And let it."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "It's overcooking the chicken frankly."

PD: "Yeah it is. Yeah it is. I mean."

NG: "But I don't, I don't know, I mean I'm sick of it being in the papers Paul,"

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And I'm sick of it being portrayed in a particular way."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Which is a very ugly way."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And I'd like to, it's another, I would like to have my say about it, um, set the record straight so to speak but I can't."

PD: "Yep, yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 21 Sec 00)

NG: "Um, and I won't speak to the media."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "At all."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Ah, I've got a few clients that, um, unfortunately give my name that say, I'm not talking to you but she will."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "But I just, um, you know, just, it's just rolling on."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "So whenever, and ...(inaudible)... was the magistrate who had carriage of all of these matters, his wife, um."

PD: "Yeah I read that."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "GOLDBERG is it?"

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Well his wife um."

PD: "Works for you ..."

NG: "Not who, she."

PD: "... a friend of yours or something or that's the way it was written."

NG: "You know, um, you know when barristers, um, become barristers?"

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And they have that apprenticeship."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "It's called Reading With, um, a Mentor."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "She's my reader."

PD: "Okay."

NG: "So, ah, it's neither here nor there. What it means is the way the bar's set up is so that when you become a barrister you don't have to pay rent or anything yourself, you share chambers with someone whose been a barrister for 10 years. And basically she's in my chambers for, ah, 'til May or June next year."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And the idea is that you give them a kick start and you introduce them to solicitors they can get briefs from and, you know, all that sort of contacts."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 22 Sec 06)

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Ah, and help them with their court cases."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Now that doesn't mean that, that doesn't mean that, I don't think it means that he has, he doesn't have any relationship with me."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "But unfortunately even for him it sounds."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And what about his poor wife who's got nothing to do with anything and she's had a, I mean I feel sorry for her 'cause she's just starting out and she's just stuck in a mess."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And you know what Paul he obviously, the magistrate himself, obviously didn't think that it was an issue."

PD: "An issue, no."

NG: "Because he asked me."

PD: "He's not happy about it."

NG: "No."

PD: "You can tell, he's comments were."

NG: "But he, um, he asked me, you know, probably six or nine months ago if I'd be prepared to have her and ironically at the time I said to him, well I'm, I've never had a reader before because you've got to be ten years. And I said, I don't, I won't qualify for ten years until November 2008."

PD: "Yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 23 Sec 00)

NG: "And he said to me at the time, oh it's alright she's not planning on coming 'til '09."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "But then someone dropped out and."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "That's how it's happened."

PD: "Yeah. Yep."

NG: "But, you know, oh watch this space as far as I'm concerned for what happens."

PD: "Yeah. Oh very interesting, um, look I, I mean I live in Wangaratta and I am 300 k's away from it all and I."

NG: "That'd be better you don't hear about it and it is not in your face every day."

PD: "...(inaudible)... I scan the papers every day just to see if my, I'm in there. That's it I seriously do."

NG: "How many Google hits do you get now?"

PD: "I don't look. I don't look. The last time I Googled me-self, it was just one page, ah, I just, ah, yeah scan the papers every day to see my name and anyone else's name that, you know, I recognise and I might have a quick read of it and that's about it. So it's good 'cause I don't, you know, you have to say nothing's ...(inaudible)... happening all the time and that."

NG: "Have you, um, have you got a, or have you detected a, any amount of attention on you 'round home?"

PD: "Um, 'round work yeah."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "There was yeah. There's just before the summer and the start of the summer."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 24 Sec 00)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Seems to have dropped off a bit of late but there was certainly, um, a bit of action there around that period like and fairly full on."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "And obvious."

NG: "But is that to put pressure on you or?"

PD: "Most likely. Look I would have thought two reasons, one to see where I go, who do I speak to."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Do I run off and go and see someone? Do I jump in the car and head to Melbourne somewhere else? Um, or do I make ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "But you wouldn't, presumably you wouldn't do that anyway."

PD: "No I go about my business, too busy. So, um, that, that, that ...(inaudible)... pressure or it to put pressure on, that should put him under the pump for another and then get him in. The prick served it on me just before I fuckin' had that trip to Perth, I was spewing because that ruined my trip."

NG: "Oh because you were thinking about it?"

PD: "Yeah and look they were all over me in Perth - it was quite bizarre. Because I met up with a couple of coppers over there, ones from their Drug Squad and ones from the Stolen Motor Car Squad."

NG: "Yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 25 Sec 00)

PD: "And they know all, they know all their dogs, you know, we're sitting, we were sitting just, ah, in this unit out the back on the balcony and the dogs couldn't get into this joint 'cause it was a secure joint and, so, one pulled up out the front and gave ...(inaudible)... so fucking obvious. Anyway, he's on the phone you could tell he was trying to work out how to get ...(inaudible)... they couldn't, they didn't know where I was going ...(inaudible)... and so I think this one pulled up around the back and stopped on the side of the road, like a road that you can't, there's no parking."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "So he had to pull up onto the thing. He jumped out with his [redacted], [redacted] and shit in it."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "And he's taken off across the road, he was obviously trying to find an O, observation post somewhere, and the boys knew the car, knew him. ...(inaudible)... I said yeah I know."

NG: "These are these coppers saying it? Yep."

PD: "They said, we know that guy and we know that car."

NG: "So what's, um, Dennis over there for, has he got rel, family there?"

PD: "No we were, we both, um, Dennis has stopped all, um, public communication with me, everything's covert, communications between me and him now, we stay tight but it's been covertly, um."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 26 Sec 02)

NG: "Because of, um, phones being off and?"

PD: "Yeah, yeah and he said ...(inaudible)... phones and things like that and his wife has ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I didn't realise his wife was in the job."

PD: PII [redacted] I worked, I met him through his wife and, you know, and we're good friends. And whenever we're in Melbourne, like today I would always go to his place and have a coffee with them and that."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "She hates my guts, she doesn't ever want to see me again, doesn't want him to have anything to do with me again and all this sort of. PII [redacted]

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Not because of me just purely because she never. She has PII [redacted]

NG: "Oh was she involved in those?"

PD: "Yeah she was PII [redacted] and she's never, ever recovered from it. Then she ended up at PII [redacted] um."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "And that, that."

NG: "Has she got the same surname as he does?"

PD: "No. Ah, PII [redacted]

NG: "Not that I would be dealing with PII [redacted] but."

PD: "Yeah. No."

NG: "I just wondered."

PD: PII [redacted] um, and yeah but so that's been a shame. But it's more, more about his missus than anything I think. He's still got."

NG: "As in his pressure?"

PD: "Yeah, yeah of not having contact with me but also."

NG: "Yeah but do you know what? So what if you are in contact you're not doing anything wrong are you?"

PD: "Nothing doing anything wrong and that's what shits me the most because he's fuckin' so paranoid that fuckin' all that. We don't, you know, he is now charged we ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "We you do, ironically."

PD: "...(inaudible)... going to be charged with that last OPI stuff they reckon they're going to charge us with Attempting to Pervert the Course of Justice and all this sort of shit."

Refer to notes of Mtg

NG: "Well Paul ironically you did say to me last time I saw you, um, everybody that you're in contact with seems to be hassled so."

Ref to previous meeting before public hearings where he tells me he's got D.L. to intervene with potential witnesses being bullied by $ I say why not just tell them to speak to a lawyer

PD: "Yeah, yeah oh yeah. Um, yes so we're still waiting to see whether I'm going to be charged with that. They said they're going to."

NG: "But that."

PD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "What happened to that they interviewed you or just charge you?"

PD: "I don't know 'cause I ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I don't know what, um, ask Tony because I don't know what happened with the other blokes."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 28 Sec 00)

PD: "Yeah, yeah no."

NG: "Although with those other blokes it seems that, um, he can no longer act for the media guy 'cause he's turned on everyone."

PD: "Yes that's right. Fortunately MULLET he has probably he's got the best out, ya know, got confused 'cause there's not much evidence from MULLETT."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And he was never a friend of, um, LINNELL he never really had much contact with him so LINNELL really will only be able to help the case against ASHBY…(inaudible)…I suppose MULLETT goes but."

NG: "Wasn't that really a political thing though?"

PD: "Oh big time. Like two, three, four years ago before the OPI there was no offence for doing what they did ya know what I mean? Like as in when I say there's no offence ...(inaudible)... technically you wouldn't be charged with Perverting the Course of Justice."

NG: "No. Nah."

PD: "Bloody misleading, lying to examiners and all these serious charges that they have now created."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Through this fuckin' bullshit, um, legislation."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 29 Sec 00)

NG: "I don't know the things that at least what I know of it from reading it in the papers, the stuff that they were talking about is probably the same stuff that happens at the top end of any, um, organisation."

PD: "Of course it would, of course it would and everyone knows it, everyone agrees with that, um, so yeah it's a bit bizarre but we'll wait and see. I mean with Dennis he seems, he seems. I must admit when, when I went through all, you know, those couple of years of fighting to retain my job and all this sort of stuff, I thought, I always thought I was going to keep me job. But realistically in hindsight now looking back on it, I was never going to fuckin' keep my job. It was all over from the moment that it all started, you know, but it's taken some years for me now to realise that and move on and this is going on."

NG: "But you also, you also said that it was what, all you'd ever done, it's all you ever wanted to do."

PD: "Yeah, yeah that's right. So Dennis is now in the same boat, it's all he's ever done, all he's ever wanted to do."

NG: "How long's he been a policeman for?"

PD: "25 years."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "Yeah, um, but, um."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 30 Sec 00)

NG: "And know when I, um, yeah."

PD: "But he's, ah, he's, you know, he's adamant now if he doesn't have the, if they don't think he's been in contact with me any more and, you know, he keeps his head down and beat these charges and get a, so he doesn't get a conviction at least."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "That he's going to keep his job. Mate, they're going to sack him, the moment, whatever happens at court if he's convicted, even without a conviction recorded."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "They're going, he'll be loss of confidence will be ...(inaudible)... very next ...(inaudible)... served on him."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And he's gone. I haven't, I haven't sat down and said that to him because I don't want to get him, he just needs to follow the processes and go through the processes and fight and be strong and all that but he's fighting a losing battle."

NG: "Has he got, um, financial, um, support? Is he okay financially?"

PD: "Ah yeah I think he's still on the pay so at this stage which is very surprising because normally when they charge you the pay stops."

NG: "Yes but aren't you entitled to some sort of sickness benefit or superannuation thing?"

PD: "You can get those types of things, um, yeah he wouldn't have had to gone down that path because of obviously he's gone okay, he's, he's okay. Um, but yeah so anyway he's, um."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 31 Sec 10)

NG: "So you've obviously got a, what a means of communicating indirectly?"

PD: "Yeah, yeah look we have had, um, he's dropped that now and he currently doesn't want to do that anymore and, um, so I'll get a letter to him today, um, dropping, it's going to be dropped into his letterbox tonight, um, basically saying ring this number if you want to speak to me from a phone box, there's no way ...(inaudible)... secure line. But purely we won't talk on the phone about anything. But ...(inaudible)... it makes you feel like you're doing something bad when you're not."

→ consciousness of guilt.

NG: "I was just about to say, what's the point of any of that?"

PD: "It shits me because it makes me feel like I'm fuckin' running around doing something."

NG: "But not only that but from an outsider's point of view it makes you look like you're hiding something."

PD: "Exactly yeah and that's ridiculous and, ah, there's no need for it but he feels that there is and. So anyway, um, I said just let me know we'll make it Seymour that's all in the ...(inaudible)... drive this way and now I drive that."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 32 Sec 04)

NG: "I actually went to Seymour Court a few months ago and never been there before. Never likely to go back either ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... for that matter but it didn't strike me as particularly."

PD: "I think I remember you telling me you were up there or."

NG: "I was going, I was going up there."

PD: "Yeah. But yeah look I, um, but it's a halfway point and I said, look if you want to just meet there just give me a date and time and I'll meet you."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "That's just probably the best way for us to do it, um, if that's the way you want to be. But it's, yeah, it's certainly as you say I don't like it, I'd rather just study you know wait til things that run their course and."

NG: "But has he got a, he must have a court date if he's been charged and ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "Yeah, yeah I don't know when it is or what the go. I don't, again, when I went to Perth I only stayed a day, I ended up taking off I just, it wasn't comfortable for those guys if it was going to cause any grief and."

NG: "Fricking hell it's a long way to go for one day Paul."

PD: "Wasn't it? It was fuckin' pain in the arse. I wasn't, I was flying in on the Friday and coming back on the Tuesday. I went over on the Friday got on the piss Friday night and then I, I changed my flights and came home Saturday, Saturday afternoon. I just didn't feel comfortable."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 33 Sec 08)

NG: "No."

PD: "And I didn't want them to be put in a position either. It was clearly that I was under, I was under surveillance there."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, and I had that, I had that court case coming up and I just thought I'm not going to enjoy this, um, I might end up staying or doing something stupid, um, I'll just go home and."

NG: "And how's, um, how's business, how's your business going?"

PD: "Business is good. Yeah no it's good, ah."

NG: "I think you said last time you had someone who, you finally had someone who could do a ..."

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "... a day or two without you having to be there."

PD: "Yeah no it's a lot better now. I can, I can, realistically we can."

NG: "Not have to be there."

PD: "Not have to be there, no. No we've got the right people to put in if we're away, um, and know how to operate it and."

NG: "And are they people that are trustworthy in terms of ..."

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "... cash business?"

PD: "Yeah, and that's like it's taken three and a half years to get to that point."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 34 Sec 00)

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Where we're confident that, um, you know, they're doing the right thing so."

NG: "And what about with early, um, economy problems, is that, um?"

PD: "Yeah it affected, November was down."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "November was down 20 percent which is really, which is a big hit. Um, in all the time we've been there, you know, looking at your figures in comparison to ..."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "... previous years and each, ya know. We were compare, I can compare every day going back five years ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Because it's all electronic?"

PD: "It's all electronic but I also keep a manual book."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Just, just so I can quickly go and see oh yeah, you know, December 7, 2008, 2007 or 2006."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I can see exactly what we made on the day in the shop."

NG: "So is it going?"

PD: "How much fuel we've sold."

NG: "Is it going up? Or your profit margin over?"

PD: "It's always been growing."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, the fuel stays roughly around the same, you know, it's funny, you sort of maximise your ability of volume at a site and we, that sort of happened fairly early days with that site that's a very big volume site and so you sort of, you're pretty much maxed out there."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 35 Sec 03)

NG: "I thought, um, I thought the profit margin in the petrol it."

PD: "Nothing ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I thought it was really with, um, with."

PD: "With the shop."

NG: "With yeah."

PD: "It's the shop is where we really, um, keep our, you know, on the ball with it and yeah we were down maybe 20 grand in November compared to November last year."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, which is the first time we've seen an actual decline in any month ever, we've always sort of grown, you know. At one stage there we were growing by 10, 11 percent, you know, which is great it's like when you're coming off a fairly decent base as it was."

NG: "Yeah."

Waitress: "Can I take the cups yet?"

PD: "Okay."

NG: "I'm still going."

PD: "I'm done. It was a fantastic growth. And we went through probably, ya know, two years of really good strong growth."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And there's been a few factors around us that have caused us to be pegged right back in the last 12 months and that was Maccas that's in our driveway went 24 hours. We had a really strong, ah, food offer overnight."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 36 Sec 00)

NG: "To do it."

PD: "24/7."

NG: "No one else around?"

PD: "No one else around. There was nowhere else to get food after 10 o'clock in Wangaratta basically on most nights of the week. The weekends, you know, obviously a little bit different 'til about midnight but after midnight, and the pubs close at 5 a.m. And you've got three nightclubs that are pretty popular."

NG: "Mm."

PD: "Everyone walks out of those clubs looking for a feed. They all came to me. And so I put a fryer in and, you know, put a, really put a good, ah, drunks food offer on."

NG: "Yep. Yep."

PD: "Cause I knew that's, and we made a killing and it was flying, then fuckin' Maccas went 24 hours and cut us, you know, cut us in."

NG: "Yeah but not everyone wants McDonald's Paul."

PD: "Yeah we still get, you know, we're still doing a little bit. No but they have they're killing us."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "Nah they really did a. We're still, ya know, kicking over and it'll always be viable but it's, ah, yeah well we're really cleaning up now ...(inaudible)...kicking over"

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um."

NG: "What about in terms of taking holidays, are you able to take more than just a weekend or?"

PD: "We, we, we took five days off, um, during the last OPI, um again took five days off but the day before we went we had all the media down and it went Ken Bruce again."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 37 Sec 06)

NG: "Oh."

PD: "I can't remember what it was but the OPI went umm, ACC, everyone went fuckin' who it was at the time, um, but anyway yeah fuckin' couldn't get out of there, out of the country, out of the state quick enough. Went to Queensland for about five days so that was alright."

NG: "And the kids?"

PD: "Yeah, yeah, yeah."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "No Bailey, me and Bailey had a ball we did different theme park every bloody day."

NG: "Oh."

PD: "It wasn't Ditty's best holiday but, ah, we enjoyed it."

* Further ref. to mtng
* ref. to prior mtng. He'd asked me on the note we were writing on if I'd been summoned

NG: "He's just a little bit young for a lot of those rides though isn't he?"

PD: "He's six going on seven and actually, ah, their height restrictions."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "He's right on, just short of it."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "But a lot of them let him go."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Obviously, he's obviously got no fear if he goes on those things."

PD: "No he's just, he's unreal. I thought he, he would shit himself. The only time he didn't like it was when it got a bit cool on one of the occasions, that's one of the water parks, and then he wasn't interested because it was too cool. He's got no body fat so he's just bloody."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "He'd turn blue so. But everything else no he'd have a crack if he was ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 38 Sec 00)

NG: "Yeah I'm, um, ah."

PD (PHONE): "How ya going? Oh okay well we are still at the coffee shop .(inaudible)... Yeah."

NG: "Tell her to come down"

PD (PHONE): "Why don't you come down? Or he's over it. Okay well when you're ready just come down to where you dropped me off and we'll go from here after that. No rush, no rush I'll be here. Okay see ya."

NG: "How's the little one Paul?"

PD: "Yeah she's good she's just woken up now she's had a sleep so, ah, she'll be with her ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "How's she ...(inaudible)...?"

PD: "Bailey will be with her too because he stayed here last night."

NG: "I saw them last time when you were, um, remember Ditty came and picked you up in William Street."

further ref. to the Starbucks meeting prior to OPI hearing.

PD: "Oh yeah, yeah, yeah."

NG: "How old's Ava now about 7/8 months?"

PD: "She's, ah, she turns 12 months, she turns one, ah, January 3."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "You wait 'til you see her, she's a baby."

NG: "But I, I."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 39 Sec 00)

PD: "She's still this big she's tiny."

NG: "I remember, um."

PD: "She's not even crawlin'."

NG: "Gee she is little."

PD: "She's little and she's just. Like Bailey was, Bailey was walking at his first birthday and full of bloody."

NG: "She wasn't born premature or anything was she?"

PD: "No about right, I'm pretty, pretty close to the mark yeah."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Yeah, no she was right. Um, nah she's just, she's just happy to, she can skid around on her bottom but she's not crawlin'."

NG: "But she's not. Not even crawling yet?"

PD: "Nah. She's getting very close now but, ah."

NG: "Actually that is, um, I've got."

PD: "It's a little bit unusual isn't it?"

NG: "Since I last saw you I've got, um, two goddaughters, my best friends had twins, and they're, um, they're four and a half months old."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And they're."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Ah, they're able to roll over and get themselves up."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "So yeah."

PD: "Oh well she's just going to be one of these ones that."

NG: "Only 'cause sometimes younger kids are more advanced because they've got an older one that, you know, Bailey would teach her things."

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "So she'd try and keep up with him."

PD: "Mm. She gets very frustrated. Even little kids born similar age, ah, just Ditty's girlfriends that have had kids."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 40 Sec 04)

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Ya know that are even younger, are twice the size of her and crawling around at a hundred miles an hour."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And she's, she gets very frustrated 'cause she, she wants to take off with them but she doesn't know how or doesn't yeah."

NG: "So is, um, Ditty back to work Paul?"

PD: "No not yet."

NG: "No."

PD: "Um, goes back, ah, in January, ah, I think she's going back two days a week."

NG: "So what will you do with, um, the little one?"

PD: "Yeah those two days a week I think she's doing like afternoon shifts so that, she's doing like a roster there."

NG: "Mr Mum."

PD: "And I'll, those two days I'll knock off early and, and go home."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "That's the way we're trying to co-ordinate it hopefully it'll work out."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "We'll see how we go."

NG: "How's she coping with all this?"

PD: "Look, um, yeah struggling, yeah really struggling actually. This latest one has been really difficult for her. Um, she's serious paranoid that they're going to come and arrest me at any stage and I must admit I expect that too in a way. I don't know, I think they're a little way off yet."

consciousness of guilt.

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 41 Sec 06)

NG: "I don't know based on what you said I can't, I don't understand it."

PD: "No I can't either but I think the only thing right now is the most, the most serious jeopardy that I feel I'm in right now will be some fuckin' trumped up bullshit charges about misleading the Examiner or perjury in an examination. But like."

NG: "For the Dennis stuff?"

PD: "Just for any of it."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Any of these. I mean there's been so many of them now they are so eager to charge me with something. They've got their theory on the HODSON murders and that's an ongoing. And now in what format it seems to change every fuckin' six months."

NG: "Mm, mm."

PD: "Um, but they are just, they are not looking at anyone else, they are only looking at me."

NG: "I was just about, I was just about to say, um, is it a case of blinkers on?"

PD: "Yeah blinkers on. They're not looking at anyone else. Like what happened with the bloke over there in Perth was I was hoping ...(inaudible)... That's why I went over there to do a bit of a welfare check on him too."

NG: "Mm."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 42 Sec 00)

PD: "He got caught up in all these that and he had nothing to do with it. Simply just because he's a friend of mine and he's ...(inaudible)... there and he took a phone call from me on the night of the murders ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And they keep bringing him up as supposed to be my alibi, my fuckin' alibi. I was with 20 people in Bendigo on the fuckin' night of the murders."

NG: "Weren't you camping or something?"

PD: "We were up on a boys trip away in Bendigo for the night. 20 fuckin' coppers and non-coppers and."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Ya know, I wasn't in Melbourne at all and so, and that's completely and utterly confirmed, it's as rock tight as it could possibly be. We took a fuckin', we rang him because he's normally with us on the boys trip. He wasn't this time. So we rung him and we've all talked to him but we happened to use my mobile. So all of a sudden fuckin' here's the alibi and that's what the media have done a couple of times. So he's copped a fair bit of shit over there from his internals and they've got Crime Commission as a result of ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "And is he still a policeman?"

PD: "He's a still a policeman."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, well he fuckin' wiped me. That's another reason why I come home early. It was a bit of a surprise visit he didn't know I was coming. He didn't know Dennis was coming either. He met Dennis up there the day before me and he met Dennis the night before."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 43 Sec 05)

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Dennis ...(inaudible)... caught up with him I think on the Friday, um, Reno wasn't with him and he said look Reno's a little bit funny towards me so but I'm sure he'll be fine."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "But, you know, he was a little bit funny. And I said, mate if he was funny with you he's going to fuckin' die in the arse when he sees me. Well sure enough he turns up. We actually had planned to go down south to Margaret River for three days."

NG: "Nice."

PD: "And he was coming and these two other coppers that are mates of Dennis were coming."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "But when he turned up he just fuckin' shit himself."

NG: "Oh."

PD: "Oh he shit himself and the funny thing about it."

NG: "And what he didn't know you were going to be there?"

PD: "No he didn't know I was going to be there. And he said, look I can't be here, I've been put through the ringer about you rah, rah, rah. He said, what I'm about to tell you can't tell ...(inaudible)... Obviously there's some secret squirrel stuff over there too. He goes, mate they reckon they're going to fuckin' charge you, that you did it, they reckon they're not looking at anyone else fuckin' rah, rah, rah, rah, rah. And fuckin' he goes, DALEY we've been mates for years, you're one of my best mates from over there, he goes, ...(inaudible)..."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 44 Sec 04)

Bluey Bob ??

NG: "Did he used, this guy used to be here Paul?"

PD: "No, no I just met him through Bluey, um, and I've been over there probably three times with Ditty and the kids ..."

NG: "Oh okay yep, yep."

PD: "... and stayed with them and they've been over and stayed with us."

NG: "Okay."

PD: "And ...(inaudible)... the coppers over there."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "We've just formed this relationship that, you know, every couple of years we'd, we'd either be at their place."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Or they'd come to our place."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And we're all living tight and good friends and all that. But, oh, having said that I'm not overly devastated that I lost a long lifetime friend or anything like that. It's, it's disappointing that I always thought he was a bit more of a staunch sort of bloke, you know, and I thought it was a bit weak what he's done. But he's got his career and his life and his family to think about."

NG: "But not only that I mean presume, you don't, you don't know what else. I mean he might have things in his life that."

PD: "Yeah look I know his marriage is on the rocks too and that was a, there was a number of reasons why we did the welfare check visit to him and that was because yeah he hasn't been himself. And when I saw him he's fuckin' lost weight and he's aged and he's fuckin' looking shit and fuckin' I hope it is not because of me he looks like that. But shouldn't be 'cause he's fuckin' never done anything wrong in his life with me."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 45 Sec 07)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Ya know so."

NG: "But that's what I'm saying."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "You don't know maybe he's got things in his life ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... that, that, um, that because of attention being brought on by him because of you it might."

PD: "Well when he got, when he got ...(inaudible)... you see he also knows Docket WATERS (inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "Yeah so all of a sudden you know Paul DALE and fuckin' he's a suspect in a double murder and he knows Dennis LINEHAN he's fuckin' hasn't been charged but he's been suspended."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And, you know Docket WATERS he's fuckin', he's also been fuckin', he's a suspect in a murder and fuckin' rah, rah, rah. How do, why do you know all these blokes? The only people you know in Victoria are fuckin' people under serious investigation."

NG: "Yeah but isn't that the assumption that's made that, um, that contact with those people must be for some criminal purpose rather than for anything else?"

PD: "No that's right. And so look I, I know what you're saying but you know what the Force is like these days so they're pretty quick to fuckin' throw you out and cause you grief and all that over things like that. So look I'm just said, I fully understand Reno, see ya later I'm out of here. Thanks for your support you fuckin' weak cunt."

NG: "And what about, um, ah, Andrew, Paul. How is he, your airline pilot mate is he still around?"

PD: "I haven't heard, I haven't heard from him in ..."

NG: "Really?"

PD: "... 12 months. Look and I don't."

NG: "Did he just drop off the face of the earth?"

PD: "Yeah, yeah. And whenever I was in town and I texted him like we'd be here."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I'd say, he lived one street over and."

NG: "Well wasn't he?"

PD: "And I'd love to go and knock on his but I don't know whether he'd fuckin' shit himself, I'm paranoid now, after the reaction I got from a lot of people over this."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I've had enough of it too. It does, it affects me, I go away from it feeling low and down and shit because all of a sudden I've lost another friend because of all these. I don't know whether he's fuckin', it's all too difficult for him. I mean he's gay and, um, never come out of the closet or whether he's got himself a boyfriend now and that way, why he's not going to be in any contact with ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... me and ...(inaudible)... those sort of guys 'cause you'd never even tell."

NG: "Yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 47 Sec 00)

PD: "Um, or simply, ya know, he's been called in a couple of times himself. Because we had a lot of contact, ya know, back ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... throughout the years and, ah, he's just fuckin' it's all too fuckin' much for him, ya know. So I've just sort of, I sent him a text message about a month ago just one out of the blue, ya know, and no reply so I'll just leave it at that now I think yeah. Whatever happens we run into each other or have contact again. I haven't changed, ya know, I'm always going to be ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... ya know the same. Um, but the same with [PII redacted] [PII redacted] I haven't had any contact with him for probably three months, four months and before that twelves months, ya know. He was another bloke who was really staunch, um, but dropped off, um. Ya know, obviously he just got dragged into all that crap when we went to [redacted] [PII redacted] blokes, [redacted] and that was all through the media and, ah."

NG: "Oh I didn't realise that was him."

PD: "Yeah, it was [PII redacted]

NG: "Oh."

PD: "And they say him and [PII redacted] you know who I was with last night, both got dragged over the coals and dragged in and threatened with this and threatened with that all because they come to [redacted] PII [redacted] PII

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 48 Sec 30)

NG: "Yep."

PD: [redacted]

NG: [redacted]

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Oh God."

PD: "I can't even fuckin' talk to him like the way we used to talk. He gets ...(inaudible).. uneasy."

NG: "Yep. Well I suppose that's, um, part of the problem that, ah, I guess there's a whole lot of problems, so I suppose part of it is they don't know. He, these people individually might have, leave aside their personal lives, Paul."

PD: "Yeah." [redacted]

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 49 Sec 00) Work on paper

NG: "But they might have things that they don't want the spotlight on them for."

PD: "Yeah exactly."

NG: "That have got nothing to do with you or any of this."

PD: "Yeah, yes exactly."

NG: "And." → Add into s/ment

PD: "~~I'm~~ And getting ...(inaudible)... Um again I was accused of leaking information to Carl about that, that job." back to that. — Written. lowers voice.

NG: "About him being arrested?" [redacted]

PD: "No, no about, do you know when we [redacted]

NG: "Yep ...(inaudible)..." [redacted].

PD: "That I actually said that job was being run." [redacted]

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And I actually thought about it and they're fuckin' nothing to do with anything. Did I meet him down that Carl...(inaudible)... and fuckin' tell him and knocked back ...(inaudible)... And I

I think this is where he [redacted] on paper b/c he means involved [redacted] said, well look that, that job from memory resulted in MOKBEL's brother being charged, um, and obviously [redacted] being charged. I reckon if Carl WILLIAMS was in possession of information in relation to that I'm sure [redacted] would have been told and that job would have fuckin' have just fallen over yet the job was successful."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 50 Sec 03)

NG: "Yeah but there was an allegation that, um, that he was tipped off about it by you."

PD: "Yep that's the allegation."

NG: "Yeah." that was put to me

PD: "Yeah ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "But that's the allegation because, um, because, ah, [redacted] and others were allowed to fry and Carl was, um, knew to stay away from it or to drop off it."

PD: "Yep, yep."

NG: "That was, but that's not news though that's a"

PD: "Okay well that was news to me. It's the first time that one had been put to me the other day."

NG: "I'm sure that's, um, where, I've read that or heard that."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Um, before."

PD: "See what I mean about the impossible position I'm in now?"

NG: "Yeah you are." * Add into statement:

PD: "Because I'm, I'm talking about something that appears to me to be all new but it's clearly ..."

NG: "That's not new."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 51 Sec 00)

NG: "But it's also public knowledge, I'm certainly not suggesting it's privileged information ...

Another example of me clearly differentiating b/w what would or wouldn't be privileged.

PD: "No."

NG: "... that someone's told me."

PD: "Yeah, yeah no."

NG: "But that's the."

PD: "But see what I mean? And as I said to the Examiner on the day I said, I'm in an impossible situation this ...(inaudible)... could become a memory test, ya know. I don't know if these are the same questions you asked me last time, I've certainly heard them before."

NG: "Well sounds like you're going to have a monkey on your back, um ..."

PD: "For a long time."

NG: "... a gigantic monkey, um, unless or until, your ah, something happens."

PD: "Yeah.

NG: "Because, um, if you're the only person being looked at then it's not likely anyone else is going, um, is going, ya know, enable it to be off your back."

PD: "No that's right. Well ya know any they didn't ask any single question about Tony MOKBEL ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Not that I'm aware of."

PD: "Implicating me ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "No, no, no don't, that's in the paper about, um, something in the paper about you meeting him."

PD: "Yeah that's right but then OVERLAND, um, mentioned, OVERLAND leaked that well not leaked it but he said in a media interview that, ah."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 52 Sec 02)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "That there was information at hand that I was meeting with Tony MOKBEL in a café in Brunswick or something like that."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "On a regular basis. Now in, at the time they didn't think, you know, they thought well it may not look good but there maybe nothing about it but in hindsight now they think maybe it was sinister. That's what he said in a media conference recently, well not recently, in the last ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I don't know I went and asked, um, about."

PD: "I've never met him."

NG: "I was asked about whether you ..."

PD: "I've never met Tony."

NG: "... knew him and I said, I don't know whether he knew him or didn't know him."

PD: "I've never met him, yeah."

NG: "I wouldn't know if, um, wouldn't know."

PD: "Mm. And that was a good thing I was able to say I didn't, I'm here today and ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "But how do they say you, how do they say that evidence you met him in a café in Brunswick then?"

PD: "I've never met him in my life. And, again, it clearly shows that the information, a lot of the information ...(inaudible).... is inaccurate and full of crap. But they're not believing, they're believing that information, they're not believing me and that's why I copped it there, a grilling by this judge at the end of whatever it is, at the end the other night like fuckin'. He was bending over backwards and really threatening the point of no matter what I say or do or provide to them in this inquiry, I will not be charged. I will not be put before a normal court." Lie

Consciousness of guilt. If NOT involved or worried then why concern himself with Tony.

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 53 Sec 20)

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "And be charged with it, um, really like I'm telling you, you will not. He goes I'm the only one ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "As in privileged is what you're saying?"

PD: "Yeah, yeah. Everything I say can not be used against me blah, blah, blah, blah, blah, I'd like to ...(inaudible)... now. And he really went on and on about it like it was the first time. Like most of them either don't mention it and we ...(inaudible)... to it."

NG: "Well they do at the beginning."

PD: "Yeah, or they do just mention it and then provide it and away you go. This went on the initial part of it went on for a good 15 minutes with him really, really trying to force the point that we want you to tell us fuckin' everything and put before them ...(inaudible)... a clearer picture for us and be assured that you're not going to be fuckin' charged with anything."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 54 Sec 05)

NG: "Right, so you were going to sit there and say yeah."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "True,I traffic drugs with this bloke, that bloke, this one whatever."

PD: "Yeah exactly and change everything I've ever said before and change and make admissions. And then at the end like I said we were there 'til fuckin' 8.30/8 o'clock."

NG: "How many hours were you there for?"

PD: "Well it started 2."

NG: "2 o'clock?"

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "With a break or not?"

PD: "Only, only for me to."

NG: "To get legal advice."] Yes And he does not call NG! who he claims to be "his lawyer" acting/advising @ the time of hearing.

PD: "Yeah. Go and have a break."

NG: "That's a long hearing Paul."

PD: "It was a long hearing. It was ...(inaudible)... Even though the allegations remain the same ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh."

PD: "Other than a little bit extra than others and."

NG: "I mean I hate, I, I'm not laughing about it but a $400,000 hit that you organised is a pretty big piece of new information."

PD: "Yeah it is."

NG: "Fuck."

PD: "Yeah. Look to be honest with you like I should really take these things a bit more seriously, but the only thing that fuckin', the only thing that came out of it was they identified about three sheilas that I was having an affair with."

NG: "Right."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 55 Sec 00)

PD: "During that period. But they were policewomen that have obviously come forward or lagged or whatever, ya know, thought they'd shit themselves over the ...(inaudible)... fuckin' ...(inaudible)...let them know."

NG: "But maybe, um, if you're phone was intercepted you've had contact with them, um, just there."

PD: "Um, but the phone calls between me and you and me and Carl and that they're. They have nothing, they just don't."

NG: "I, I would."

PD: "He said one thing to me."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "One thing to me before he fuckin' took off."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, and that was."

NG: "Which is ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "...(inaudible)... before you go Tony, Tony I want to know from you."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Just ...(inaudible)... inquiry, particular in the inquiry, where the judge again really reiterating to me, going away from you and thinking about things and that if wanted to change anything."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Or add anything."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "That I'd still be covered he would quite happily hear from me."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, he would be quite happy to take an induced statement from me and still keep it privileged and blah, blah, blah, like really fuckin' going into depth about. And then trying, trying to fuckin', ya know, as ...(inaudible)... oh yeah okay I'll go away and do that and come back and say I'll ...(inaudible)..."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 56 Sec 06)

NG: "I hope, I hope that they don't think that I was involved in some murder."

PD: "No, no, no, no, no you no you're, you're, you're ...(inaudible)... Look that whole inquiry I reckon now I mean in hind, ya know ...(inaudible)... when you ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "~~Well you need~~ ~~to it~~ or if to ensure that if you're charged I can't act for you."

Covered

Add into silent to make clear what my words mean in response to what he said.

ie. No I'm acting now and lawyers can't but that I would not be able to act if chged or now I cannot I am not acting

PD: "Yeah no I don't reckon, it couldn't even get to that. See the phone calls they played were purely, they don't even say that we're together like the phone calls don't show that we're together. It's showing you making a phone call to Carl asking me to come ...(inaudible)... and it shows me making a phone call about two hours later on the same night."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, speaking to Carl. Now whether it was on the same phone number I'm not sure I don't know."

NG: "I wouldn't have a clue."

PD: "Look and I don't know not even particularly at ...(inaudible)... They didn't ask me who the calls were ...(inaudible)... ya know and this particular thing and. It really came down to they're trying to show that I had a more of a, um, ...(inaudible)... and I'm starting to think fuckin'." relationship w Carl Williams.

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 57 Sec 00)

NG: "So you're not being accused of Jason MORAN's murder anymore?"

PD: "No."

NG: "Cause at one stage they were, um."

PD: "Yeah oh yeah ...(inaudible)... sorry yes you're right yeah I know."

NG: "Mark MORAN."

PD: "I, um, I took the contract to do Jason."

NG: "I remember."

PD: "I was paid $30,000 to do, um, find Jason and provide information to Jason's whereabouts and all that sort of stuff. Yeah that was, I was, that was put to me again."

NG: "You know that's one thing that sticks out in my mind."

PD: "I think they put all this money figures together and come up with 400 grand that's why they're."

NG: "I don't know but you know why I raised that? Um, it's one thing that, that, um, it's one thing that sticks in my mind from oh that's 2003 or '04 I can't remember when. But I remember having a conversation with you, um, on the phone where you were, I don't know where. I don't know whether you'd been dragged through a hearing, I don't know how it'd come up, but you were being accused of that murder around the time that, that those blokes that had ...(inaudible)... had been charged with it."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "They were being ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... interviewed for it."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 58 Sec 00)

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "I can't remember the timing of it. So you were supposed to have done that too?"

PD: "Yeah I, I got $30,000 to, um, I took the contract out and that, um, I was."

NG: "30 grand's a bit cheap Paul."

PD: "I would have thought. And I was either to do it or I was to provide, um, the whereabouts and the location of him and all that sort of stuff, yeah. That, yeah so yeah you're right that was ...(inaudible)... from the beginning."

NG: "Jesus."

PD: "Um, yeah."

NG: "So you're a serial killer now."

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "Or multiple murderer."

PD: "But yeah look don't, I just wanted to let you know that that's what, that's ~~what~~ was said ~~to the.~~"

Add into statement:

IN CASE YOU GET A SUMMONS YOU NEED HEADS UP OR TO LIE CONSISTENT W/ ME

In case I ~~get a summon~~ got summonsed. | Add into statement

PD: "I'm surprised you haven't seen. ...(inaudible)... But then again having said, what are you going to say? Yeah that's ...(inaudible)... Carl WILLIAMS phone line, yeah that's ...(inaudible)... Paul DALE ...(inaudible)... and fuckin' yep we catch up every so often. Fuckin' so be it."

NG: "I don't know there'd be, there'd be, look would be so many."

PD: "None of these allegations were put to me about this at all, none at all other than that bit of a go-between between Carl at one stage ...(inaudible)... the allegation at one stage."

(Track 1 Hrs 01 Min 59 Sec 00)

NG: "There was also, um, there was also a fair amount of contact that I had with you, um, at the time you were charged because, um, I do remember on a number of occasions, um. I remember having dinner with you a couple of times with a, with a, with a folder of, brief, I don't know whether it was yours or, or the Galop brief."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Um, quite often going through things."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And I remember speaking to Tony HARGREAVES because I remember I'd, I mean I do remember for example."

PD: "Don't tell Tony about this, he was adamant I not ...(inaudible)..." catch up with you.

NG: "Well, um, I haven't like ...(inaudible)... I have seen Tony."

PD: "Yep exactly."

NG: "When did you have this hearing?"

PD: "Oh about a week ago, two weeks ago."

NG: "Well I have seen him since then."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Just in, around court and whatever."

Add in: statement ★ Adamant b/c TH knew NG was acting and therefore if Paul saw her NOT protected by L.P. privilege

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And he hasn't mentioned anything to me."

PD: "Nah, nah so we'll leave it at that."

NG: "But, um, what I was going to say is I, ah, ya know, not being. I mean it's no secret that, um, at the time you were charged there was a lot of information sharing going on and I remember speaking to you a number of times where you were, not second guessing what Tony was saying to you."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 00 Sec 09)

PD: "Yep."

NG: "But, but, um, asking the qualification of things or for statements and."

PD: "Yeah oh yeah right, um, ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "There's one thing, ya know, the other thing Paul is I remember, um, when I saw you at prison."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Um, in Charlotte, I remember you saying either then or subsequent to then. See my, my memory of dates is very."

PD: "Oh yeah it's a long time ago."

NG: "No, no it's not even that. It's, it's, um, I actually have no memory of my childhood."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Ah, I've got, it takes my youngest sisters to remind me of certain things to, and even then I don't know the details of it. And my neurologist says that, um, it's the, where the clot hits my brain there's various, um, I would need reminding of a particular event ..."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 01 Sec 05)

PD: "Yep."

NG: "...(inaudible)... um, or maybe it's old age I don't know. But, um, but, ah, I remember you being very adamant that you had, um, sufficient information to not be concerned about HODSON because of in terms of his credibility."

PD: "Mm that's right."

NG: "So have you been, have you been able to explain your point of view about that or not?"

PD: "Many times but they don't want to listen to it, they're not interested. I've said to them many times that it's not in my interest for the HODSONs to be killed, not in my interest at all. We would have went to committal and if it wasn't thrown out of committal it certainly would have been at any trial, subsequent trial ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Well there's an irony, there's an irony that."

PD: "...(inaudible)... very, very ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I remember some, seeing you in prison you're, um, position was very clear."

PD: "Mm. Yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 02 Sec 00)

NG: "I suppose some of it's motive there's nothing, nothing new."

PD: "No there isn't no, no still the same, the same theory. But they thought, they think they've got a big breakthrough with COLLINS ...(inaudible)... but I don't really feel that that's an issue for me at all."

NG: "Well, ya know, that doesn't make sense to me and I'm only well, ya know, I'm obviously speculating."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "But it doesn't make sense if there's sworn evidence then you charge someone. Isn't that how it works?"

PD: "Well if the person that made that, has given that evidence in an ACC hearing, ya know."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And they're very unreliable, ah, like ...(inaudible)... even though I don't think they're good. It's a big call isn't it? We're going to charge Paul DALE with a double murder like it's going to be this massive media coverage and an increased, and our witnesses are two lifers"

NG: "Mm."

PD: "With no chance of parole well ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh no Carl's got a parole date"

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 03 Sec 00)

PD: "Yeah but you know what I mean like there's people that judge it as no comment about being made unreliable, untrustworthy, lied to your grandmother type thing. There's judges comments on that and then you're going to put them before as your witness? I mean basically if you can build a case around it well you can ...(inaudible)... this bloke, ya know, he's obviously ...(inaudible)... witness but we reckon he did ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I don't know, Paul, there's, ah, I mean my view the pendulum has swung a fair bit in terms of, you know, even ten years ago if you were taking a statement from someone, um, who was going to be indemnified for whatever, it was limited to what that person had seen themselves ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... heard themselves and so forth."

PD: "....hearsay evidence"

NG: "But now it seems to be, um, that person goes and makes a statement about what they heard ..."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "... second or third hand, on the nature of all these people you. I mean, you know, you might for reasons personal to yourself, you might. I mean let's take an example, you might have given Carl, for example, the impression that you were doing something with someone else or you knew another person or whatever, I mean."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 04 Sec 16)

PD: "That was an allegation put to me."

NG: "Well okay use any example but, but."

PD: "But it was, it was put to me that I've, that I, I met with Carl and asked him to arrange somebody but I said to him at the time that I've already go other arrangements in place it was taking too long."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "Ah, that's exactly what, um, exactly what was put to me."

NG: "Oh well I didn't mean it that as a specific example."

PD: "But that, that was, that was put to me and, um."

NG: "But what I meant was this."

PD: "I was made to say to him that something was being done ...(inaudible)... ask you that would I or could I. But say to him something must have been in the pipeline, ya know."

NG: "What I really meant was this, if."

PD: "I know where you're going, you're going in relation to the old hearsay evidence where people are just starting to now get statements where they're ...(inaudible)... ya know."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 05 Sec 00)

NG: "Yeah but, but also you, not use you as an example."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Say a drug dealer, it's in their interest to, when they're meeting their suppliers for example, who big note themselves and, and make, and bullshit."

PD: "Yeah of course."

NG: "And, and especially when they're arrested and it comes out of ...(inaudible)... they're often seen to be much bigger than what they really were because of their own mouth."

PD: "Exactly."

NG: "But the fact is that then the people that, um, that person then ends up making a statement and they might then say, ah, when they're making their statement they might repeat stuff that's been bullshit for them."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "But then police accept as evidence and it might have been you, for example, building up a picture or saying you knew people to big note yourself."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "And all of a sudden it becomes fact."

PD: "Yeah, you're right."

NG: "And it's, um, and I'm not saying ..."

PD: "No, no, no that's alright."

NG: "... it's specific to you, but it seems to be, um."

PD: "...(inaudible)... as being."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 06 Sec 00)

NG: "I had a case only two weeks ago where, I mean the bloke's a drug trafficker, he's pleading as a drug trafficker, but his trafficking at his level."

PD: "Mm."

NG: "But because of his own voice and idiotic things he said it's now bigger than Ben Hur."

PD: "Ah yeah yep."

NG: "But, um, ...(inaudible)... I sort of ...(inaudible)... that, um, some of the difficulties of us having this, um, with one particular lunatic."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Um, I suppose from that point of view it's a bit quiet."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "I've had a, on a personal level, I've probably had a gutful of, of, ah, all of it, all. And that's for me in a way for a summons to be served on me for Tony is, ya know. I really, I don't need it."

PD: "No, no. How have you been physically and?"

NG: "Um, still, um, still taking a very large amount of, um, what does my sister call it? Hillbilly heroin."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 07 Sec 00)

PD: "Morphine yeah."

NG: "No morphine."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Um, it's, I've been thinking had I started seeing that chiro, chiro bloke when I spoke to you last time?"

PD: "Oh."

NG: "Or I hadn't?"

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "I can't remember what month that was."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Um, I got put onto this guy actually who's in, um, Middle Park and, um, ah, he's oh look, he's a chiropractor and, forgive my, ah, bias."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "I don't think much of them."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "But he, um, he's been doing, um, a lot of internal massage of the muscles and ligaments and basically same as, same as what a number of other doctors have said which is that there is, um, muscle and ligament damage from when I, ah, taught myself to speak again ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... without the assistance of, um, occupational therapists or physio."

PD: "Yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 08 Sec 00)

NG: "And, ah, combined with a thing called TMJ which is, um, a condition where you either clench your jaw or grind your teeth."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And when you're tense or stressed ..."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "... you do it more. And I found that."

PD: "Yeah I got to get a heap of work done to me ..."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "...(inaudible)... back."

NG: "Have you always been like that though?"

PD: "Wouldn't have thought so."

NG: "Well, um, I know, on top of that I've also got osteoarthritis in the joint itself. So, um, I can't think I can face another winter here."

PD: "Yeah?"

NG: "It's just, ah, I've got a new sympathy Paul for people that have got arthritis."

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "Ya know and, um."

PD: "So what are you doing, what are you going to do over winter?"

NG: "Not be here."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "I don't know what."

PD: "Head north."

NG: "Oh I don't know. I've really had enough of, ah, enough of a lot of things in Melbourne."

PD: "Yeah, yep."

NG: "But I don't know what yet ..."

PD: "What you're doing yeah."

NG: "the direction where I'm going to go."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "But. So this guy's been doing a lot of, um, internal massage and it's been, um, working insofar as my, um, pain killer requirements have dropped."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Um, I've also had botox injections into the joint."

PD: "Yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 09 Sec 00)

NG: "And I never, don't get me wrong I wouldn't go and have botox for wrinkles ..."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "... I don't give a fuck about that."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "But, um, I never knew that it was, um, something that hasn't really been used for a long time in Australia, but it is used, um, for stroke victims and for people with chronic pain problems. So I've had a bit of that."

PD: "Is there a toilet here?"

NG: "Yeah there is, um, inside."

PD: "Here comes Ditty and Bailey hang on."

NG: "Oh do you want to have another coffee or ask?"

PD: "You want to ...(inaudible)...?"

NG: "Or is she, does she want to leave?"

PD: "What do you want to do?"

NG: "Okay."

PD: "She'll probably have five minutes with ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah. Hello."

DD: "How are ya?"

NG: "How's the little one?"

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh is he?"

DD: "Not like ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Hello little one, say hello."

DD: "How are ya?"

NG: "Yeah I'm good I'll pull up another chair hang on. Can I just have a chair? Thanks. I just said to him if you, I don't know whether you're sticking around or you've got to hit the road."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 10 Sec 05)

DD: "No but I'm taking Paul clothes shopping."

NG: "Oh okay."

DD: "Yes. We have to."

NG: "Is he in need of something?"

DD: "Oh well he culls his whole wardrobe so most of our friends in Wang are wearing his clothes."

NG: "Oh."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh."

DD: "So this is I said right, and go shopping so we're going to head into town. Why what was he saying?"

NG: "No, no, no we just finished coffee and I said, um, either if he wanted to stick around and have another one or not just get them but if you've got to go you've got to go."

DD: "No, no, no, no we're not in any rush."

NG: "You've grown up since I saw you last time little one."

DD: "Yes he's ...(inaudible)... How's it all going with you, good?"

NG: "Yeah not bad, not bad. Paul was just saying he goes, um, he goes, if you, um, if you lose any more weight I'm not going to recognise you. I said, I don't think I've lost that much since I saw you."

DD: "Oh definitely you were very thin then."

NG: "Yeah I mean have."

DD: "Yeah you have."

NG: "I have."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 11 Sec 00)

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "Yeah you've lost weight."

NG: "The way you can see it is, um, if like when like my bones were sticking out up here."

DD: "Oh right."

NG: "Um, it's not through um."

DD: "Is that mean, is that still with your illness?"

NG: "Yeah, yeah. It's not through, um, let me say it's not through going to the gym or doing anything it's, um, well I just take my, um, morphine and nothing else, um, I can still eat. But, um, I take Panadeine Forte as well and that is just awful for your insides."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "It basically means you can't keep any food down or you ...(inaudible)... you have no appetite."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "No."

NG: "...(inaudible)... Bailey."

PD: "Do you want a drink?"

DD: "Get his own drink. You got money?"

PD: "Yeah."

DD: "There's your daddy, hey daddy."

NG: "Do you want, um, another drink? I might order another coffee."

PD: "Actually I'm okay I'm fine."

DD: "I'll go and get them."

NG: "Do you want something Ditty?"

DD: "Yeah I'll get them. What do you want?"

NG: "Just a skinny flat white will be great."

DD: "Skinny flat."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 12 Sec 00)

NG: "And, um, table 33. Hello little one. Gee she doesn't much look like you Paul."

PD: "Yeah ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "So you're not going to?"

PD: "Yeah the ...(inaudible)... is good for the, um, putting up with ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "The only new ...(inaudible)... I get an email from Tony during the week."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "And it says, he's very blunt, it says, look this is the second time I've ...(inaudible)... for you, represented you and ...(inaudible)... and he goes, um, ...(inaudible)...Police Association (inaudible) the OPI hearing."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I didn't know that. Um, I do not work for nothing."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, I was meant to tell you this the other day, um, I, I won't be able to get a ...(inaudible)... this one, what are you thoughts?"

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Well I didn't realise that. I didn't know that. I just presumed that the police association would.... but Tony ...(inaudible)... I was always told that the minute Tony was ...(inaudible)... in relation to the DPP."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I just went straight to Tony don't even bother ringing up any more."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Just ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, and ...(inaudible)... I didn't realise, it was 12 months ago."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Over 12 months that ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Hello Bailey, hello."

PD: "And I hadn't heard anything about it."

NG: "Did you want me to get you a chair?"

Bailey: "No."

NG: "No."

PD: "No. But it came as, you know, a little bit of a shock to me because ...(inaudible)... that I didn't even realise that ...(inaudible)... and that Tony's been ringing me - can't do anything. I was, if I knew that I had to pay for that representation."

NG: "I quite often."

PD: "... I was ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yep. I quite often give people advice and send them by themselves."

PD: "Yeah. But you can't do anything."

NG: "But the only but Paul one of the only benefits of, ah, taking representation there is that at least then there's two people's memory of what got up." ~~said~~ asked.

PD: "Yeah true, true."

NG: "Because otherwise."

PD: "But then when I get out of there and I walk up the road and I get nothing from Tony."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Absolutely nothing, I'm thinking to me-self."

NG: "Waste of money. And he does charge a fortune."

PD: "Yeah I know that's what I'm thinking and I was there at 8 o'clock at night I'm thinking I'd probably be better off paying for the first one than the second one."

NG: "So is he, was he, would you walk away from there with the impression that I'll get a summons?"

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 14 Sec 03)

PD: "I ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Is that what you think?"

PD: "I'm a little bit surprised that you haven't been. I presume that I would have got here today and you'd be going oh yeah I was there two weeks ago"

Directly asks me if I have got a summons.

NG: "Nah."

PD: "...(inaudible)... I don't see anything coming of it."

NG: "I mean not that I could say to you if I had anyway."

PD: "No, no. And I yeah clearly I mean ..."

NG: "What's um."

Second Statement:

PD: "... I jeopardise my position by coming here and talking to you about it too. But fuck it."

NG: "At least you, but at least you can use the excuse of my, um, being a lawyer."

Need to explain why I say this bic it goes back to him saying the O'Connells stuff p. 2/p.3 of first statement and how he'd said he'd claim privilege if he needed to.

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

DD: "Did you want it in a mug again?"

PD: "...(inaudible)... also I've been, you know, yeah I'm right."

NG: "But, um."

PD: "Um, yeah but getting back to it, um, yeah I got nothing from him as a result of it, nothing."

NG: "Ah."

PD: "And I just thought, well, it came as a shock."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, I totally agree I just, if I'd known that I, you know, I probably wouldn't have asked him to come."

NG: "He cost, he does charge a fortune."

PD: "I can imagine he would."

NG: "Well Tony HARGREAVES per hour is, um."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 15 Sec 00)

DD: "Yes but what's all, I don't know ...(inaudible)... but you ask and you definitely get it."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "...(inaudible)... 'cause last time."

NG: "And by the way you have to pay."

DD: "But hang on he knew this time that, he did it free last time, he could have told us in advance."

NG: "Yep yeah."

PD: "He could have told us."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

PD: "He could have."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "Even on the bottom it says, is this satisfactory is this ...(inaudible)... big question mark, so he knows that we're probably going to say, which we are no but next time."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "We've got to know if we would have engaged him."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Well I wouldn't have."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "Yeah ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "He's normally about $400 an hour or something like that."

DD: "Well he was there all day."

NG: "Yep. Could be."

DD: "...(inaudible)... another day."

PD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Til 8 o'clock at night."

NG: "Um."

DD: "So."

NG: "But he might have, um, covered it. You'd probably have a cost agreement with him which, um."

DD: "Bailey away from there."

NG: "Not that he's ever the sort of a person who would enforce ..."

DD: "Over here matey."

NG: "... a written agreement Paul, but he might have, ah, if you read it it's probably got something to do with Association limits on there."

PD: "Yeah I don't know."

DD: "No don't stay over here."

NG: "I don't know why don't they, why don't they pay for it if it's part of?"

PD: "It's the first I've heard of it. I was talking to a couple of people last night and they reckon that coppers."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 16 Sec 00)

NG: "That it should be covered?"

PD: "Well they, they presume it would be. I'm going to have to ring the association, maybe they go."

DD: "...(inaudible)... with all the money."

PD: "Yeah. 'Cause I'm making a few enquiries too because it's sort of like that's a bit bizarre."

NG: "I don't know."

DD: "But you think he could write back and say that to him."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "We're under the understanding."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

PD: "And we'll pursue it with the Association first."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And if that's unsuccessful ..."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "... well we'll discuss it further."

NG: "We'll sort it out."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "He wouldn't have a problem with that."

DD: "We'll pay for it next, well if there'll be a next time but no I don't want to have to go through that one now."

NG: "Why, um, why are you, I mean this is me being completely ignorant, but why, for example, does the Association pay for, um, other hearings but not that one?"

PD: "Yeah I don't know."

DD: "Yeah we don't know."

NG: "Why is that?"

PD: "I don't know. That's a question I've got to ask them because they've never, never been questioned before. The last one was questioned about the OPI hearing is because, I think it's questioned, not the question that Tony's had of me last time was, if I was to be charged with that, in regards to that last OPI hearing."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 17 Sec 00)

NG: "Yep."

PD: "The charges relate to incidents mainly being phone calls ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... and that that have occurred after I."

DD: "After."

PD: "After I was out of the Police Force."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "And all that sort of stuff."

NG: "So it wouldn't been covered in the course of ..."

PD: "I don't reckon I was."

NG: "... duties of a police officer."

PD: "Yeah I don't reckon, I, I would have go before the Police Association and make an application for funding ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Do you, um, you know if you're in contact, um, Dave WATERS knows the ins and outs of all of that."

PD: "Oh okay."

NG: "Because they had to go back to the Executive after they were acquitted ..."

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "... and get paid."

PD: "I've got a good mate, I've got a good mate on the Association, I'll ring him and speak to him about it."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I'll ring, Phil PEARSON, I'll ring him this week and ask Phil. 'Cause I actually, I got a letter from Tony ...(inaudible)... after those last."

DD: "What did you just say, did you fill up that bowl?"

Bailey: "Pardon?"

DD: "Did you just fill up that bowl? Show us your arm."

PD: "After that last OPI hearing, um, Tony wrote me a letter that said basically that, that he doesn't believe that I would be covered by the Association if I'm, ya know, as a."

NG: "Yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 18 Sec 00)

PD: "In relation to that last OPI hearing. Anyway, I contacted the Association and nobody ever got back to me and no one ever, I never heard from anyone so if they do they must have ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I know that they, I don't know the ins and outs of law that they had, ah, for funding but I know that in the end they were successful in getting all the money back that they paid. 'Cause they had to pay for their trial themselves."

PD: "Yeah is that's right?"

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Because that's because."

NG: "Do you want that chair back?"

PD: "I know, I know, I know exactly why all that happened. They initially got funding but then what's his name ..."

NG: "Oh ...(inaudible)..."

DD: "Ya right?"

NG: "Yeah.

PD: "... made that statement and all of a sudden ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... the case against them was appeared to be a lot stronger and the Association then made them come back before them ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... and the Association ..."

DD: "No leave it."

PD: "... decided no we're not funding you to pay for this you're too strong 'cause we think you're successful."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "We're not funding you. Um, so that's what happened there. Then when everything pulled out it's back to square one, hang on a minute, it's square one, we were funded."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Then, and they went back there again so we want, and that's why they were successful in ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "Yeah."

Bailey: "I went to bed at ...(inaudible)..."

DD: "You went to bed at what time? Ten o'clock!"

PD: "Um, Phil PEARSON spoke to me about it and said."

NG: "Oh'o."

PD: "He just said, look ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I don't think you want it bit, um."

DD: "No, no."

NG: "It's got a bit of mess on it."

PD: "Yeah no."

DD:	"Here she's tired."
PD:	"Why is she cranky?"
DD:	"Well she only, I left her in the car at Susie's and she woke after an hour so she needs another sleep."
PD:	"Mm."
DD:	"Um."
NG:	"So did you leave, um, the children with a babysitter last night?"
DD:	"Well, um, Bailey stayed, Ava and Bailey were going to stay at Susie's place around the corner."
NG:	"Yep."
DD:	"And then that was fine until they decided to go out and they had a."
NG:	"Thank you."
Waitress:	"...(inaudible)..."
DD:	"Thanks. And, um, then Susan rang me early in the week and said, well ..."
NG:	"Hang on one second ...(inaudible)..."
DD:	"...(inaudible)..."
NG (PHONE):	"Hi ~~Ross~~ love, how ya going? Yeah not bad. We're still going to meet up tonight? Yeah, what time?"
DD:	"She'll sleep in the, ah."
NG (PHONE):	"Okay. Alright."
DD:	"Go the shops."
PD:	"Okay."
NG (PHONE):	"Okay, well, um, do you want to go to the early one? At home?"

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 20 Sec 00)

DD: "Suzie said Bailey was very good."

NG (PHONE): "Okay, well I'm, um, not far from Readings so I'll give you a tingle. Okay thanks Ross see ya bye." leaving

luv

NG: "Sorry Ditty."

DD: "No you're right."

Bailey: "And this kid came over and was, and he done that ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "Yeah, um."

DD: "Oh was it?"

PD: "Probably not, probably won't get funding for that hearing now, which I haven't already I'm very surprised."

NG: "Probably still working."

PD: "Oh yeah."

NG: "Working on, working on. Yeah well they might be able to as a consequence of seeing you now."

PD: "Yeah you never know. Look I hope it doesn't.."

NG: "Thanks Ditty."

PD: "... because of our contact today but if it does so be it. I mean like I said, I was never going to walk, I don't walk away from things."

NG: "Well the probably, one of the problems is that the perception would be, um, that, ah, that everything you do and everything single person you see."

PD MOTIONS: Ref. to the 2 gay blokes he thinks are coppers

Add into statement b/c this is his belief or thought process ∴ CANNOT be privilege (if he genuinely thought contact privileged then why this remark?)

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 21 Sec 03)

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Is something ..."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "... improper, unlawful or whatever."

DD: "Yeah I agree."

PD: "Because they only see me as one thing."

NG: "Yeah that's right."

PD: "Um."

DD: "That's the thing and do you know they have been around and pursuing our friends, pursuing friends that we're going out and ..."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "... having drinks with and it's just, I just think that's stupid 'cause like they're idiots."

NG: "Mm."

DD: "Drawing people into enquiries that ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Mm."

DD: "And those sort of things."

PD: "Yeah."

DD: "I just cannot believe it that they're just ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "I had a go at some people who, ya know, I said look this is ..."

DD: "Yeah."

PD: "... this witch hunt has been going on for nearly five years, it's almost ruined, it's ruined me every single, has ruined every, every friendship I made in the 17 years I was in the Police Force, every one of those friends has just been ...(inaudible)... every one of them now."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I said, and all the friendships I made over the last 10 years even in a social environment, you've destroyed 90 percent of those too. I said I went to Perth on the weekend."

DD: "He went to Perth on the weekend, came back the next day."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 22 Sec 00)

NG: "Yeah he told me."

PD: "Went there to see."

NG: "I said it's a long way to go for one, one day."

PD: "I went there to see a long term good close mate and had to come back 'cause he didn't feel comfortable around me anymore. I said, you people have destroyed just about every bloody friendship I've got. I said, I'm going to continue to live my life the way I do and try and maintain my friendships so no matter what you people say to these people. You're running around telling them that I've done this and done that. You're telling them that I'm a killer and that's why they don't want to have anything to do with me anymore and I said it is just wrong. So don't yeah. So if I, I'm sitting here today and I spy any of these people they're the reason why."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I will never ever co-operate with them in any way, shape or form."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um, I'll do what I, I'll sit here, ah, nobody's protecting me. I'll sit here today and I'll answer to the best of my ability but I will never ever, ya know, co-operate with Victoria Police ever again. But that wasn't the case three years ago but it is now. ...(inaudible)..."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 23 Sec 00)

DD: "And they go ...(inaudible)... they go right now where were you? I don't give a shit. But, um, it'll be strange for you I think from reading the paper you're going to be on the other side of it ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "...(inaudible)... you know a lot about it but that you'll know what has to ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yes I know. But it's, um."

PD: "Remember how they."

NG: "You know Ditty I've really stopped paying attention to, um, to what's in the papers because it's, um, sometimes it's inaccurate on purpose."

DD: "Oh yeah."

PD: "On purpose yeah."

DD: "For a reason, yeah."

NG: "Um, and, ah, and because like I've been in the paper recently over this stupid MOKBEL mess."

DD: "Yes."

NG: "I'd really rather not read about it and I'd rather not, I don't need it in my face every day so I just try and ignore."

DD: "Yeah."

NG: "Unless it, unless it's something that relates specifically to me, I don't care. I don't want to know."

DD: "It's funny because when I read something that's bad for Paul I think oh they've got it wrong and then when I see something good for Paul and I think oh that'd be right. It's nice but then ...(inaudible)... but they do dick us around ..."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "... to try and."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 24 Sec 00)

NG: "And sometimes you feel a great desire to try and correct the record."

PD: "Yeah the same."

NG: "Um, and they're."

DD: "Yeah you don't get anywhere."

NG: "Well it doesn't get you anywhere from a long term point of view you're better off just ignoring it, um."

PD: "I copped it. I got into a bit of crap there recently, um, silly I spoke to the media locally."

DD: "And they chased him."

PD: "No."

NG: "Did they um?"

PD: "No, no not the one I um."

DD: "What one did you ...(inaudible)...?"

PD: "The OPI put a, a story in saying, ya know, they're going to charge me with this and all that sort of crap as a result of that hearing."

NG: "Right."

PD: "And then the very next day."

DD: "That's a nice ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "It is isn't it?"

PD: "The very next day that reward was released and all that sort of stuff and the media were having a field day with that. Two days in a row they were just absolutely and it was ...(inaudible)... and done ...(inaudible)... And so about two weeks after that there's a big article photo of me in the local Border Mail, in the newspaper up there which is the main newspaper that everyone reads."

NG: "In Perth?"

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 25 Sec 00)

PD: "Ah, in Wangaratta and Albury/Wodonga."

NG: "Okay yep."

PD: "And a big photo of me and it was Misconception OPI would like to, um, they replied that they, the recommendations they have of me being charged were in relation to their enquiry with Dennis LINEHAN and fuckin' ...(inaudible)... and things like that ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... relating to Perverting the Course of Justice and had nothing to do with the HODSON murders but a separate case to what the Victoria Police Force is working on. And I responded to that, I contacted the Border Mail and ..."

NG: "...(inaudible)... one of those cigarettes."

PD: "... and I said the reason why."

DD: "I don't do it anymore."

NG: "Oh."

PD: "I contacted."

NG: "You're reformed?"

DD: "Yeah and I haven't since I got pregnant with her."

PD: "So I contacted the Border Mail and I said, look the reason why they've come out and said this is because they're trying to show that they're independent to the Victoria Police Force. They are not independent in any way, shape or form but I've been to a number of enquiries with the OPI and they're Victoria Police members sitting there."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I said, it is meant to be top secret and all that."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "I ...(inaudible)... work with me ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 26 Sec 00)

PD: "The OPI has these powers, questions ...(inaudible)... Victoria Police Force is using to their advantage and it's not independent. Don't think that they can't ...(inaudible)... they are trying to say that they are independent – they're not. (inaudible) Then I get a phone call from some bloke from The Age or Herald Sun."

NG: "I that paper affiliated with, um?"

PD: "Some Australian Press or Australian Press Club."

NG: "Well that's what I mean is that, um, affiliated as in they get their information from the same, whoever rights for The Age or the Herald Sun?"

PD: "Yeah exactly yeah."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "So I get a phone call. And he just rings me out of the blue and I said, oh no I'll talk to you. So I didn't have this ...(inaudible)... with me and it's all about ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "The OPI and all this sort of stuff. And I said, look what you've got to understand is Victoria Police Force has got ...(inaudible)... and I'm the one who did this and did that and because I, because I had a motive. I said, look I ...(inaudible)... had a motive but you've got to understand that he was, he was moving in circles of people that had far greater motives and opportunities than me. He was dealing with interstate and international drug traffickers. He was, he was a big player, you know. Anyway the way it came out in the media was that I said he was involved in interstate and international corrupt police."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 27 Sec 08)

DD: "Yeah I, that you said Paul."

NG: "Oh that you said."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "And was that accredited to?"

PD: "They said that I said that."

NG: "Oh."

PD: "In the paper."

DD: "that is what I said to Paul and take it from Nicola."

PD: "And you can imagine what the ...(inaudible)... of that enquiry was."

DD: "Don't talk to them."

NG: "Oh."

PD: "Oh they were whinging about what ...(inaudible)... about corrupt police what ...(inaudible)...

NG: "what did you say?"

PD: "What did you say? Yep. So I copped it big because of that. So you're right talking to the media."

DD: "Don't talk to them."

PD: "I never, I don't ...(inaudible)... to them, they had, they had all the articles and they had them highlighted"

NG: "Oh."

PD: "And I said, listen."

NG: "I was going to say I haven't read, I haven't read anything where you've been alleged to have said that."

PD: "Yeah, it was in the local one up there and I said, what you've got to understand is, I said, you people at the Petra Taskforce ...(inaudible)... you think you've got ...(inaudible)... phone call, you were have heard that call, you would know that I didn't say that. And I didn't say that."

NG: "And is that on your phone?"

PD: "Yeah on my mobile."

NG: "What an irony."

PD: "I said, why? This is ridiculous that we are even having this conversation you people would know that I didn't say that."

NG: "Yep."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 28 Sec 00)

PD: "I said, this is a perfect example of why you should never speak to the media. And I mucked up that day I spoke to them and look what happened the very next day it's in there, it's in the paper that I've said this which I didn't say. And I said, you people should know that I didn't say that."

DD: "Anyway Paul you won't do it again."

NG: "You live and learn don't you?"

DD: "Oh yeah I knew they'd ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I've been, um, I've been accredited with, um, saying things that I actually haven't said."

DD: "Yeah."

NG: "Where people like, um, in recent, recent say 12 months, um, Mick GATTO's been, um, harassed by the media so much and it ...(inaudible)..."

DD: "...(inaudible)... last week."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "...(inaudible)... I thought that was very funny that."

NG: "He said to the media, um, ah, you can ring and confirm it with her. And so then they rung me and I've said, I've got nothing to say, um, on the record or off the record. And then the next day in the paper it says my name and I think you know, um, you can't win."

DD: "Do you think they listen to you?"

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 29 Sec 00)

NG: "No. What I, what I say to people such as him in terms of advice when dealing with them is unless you can get a guarantee in writing that everything you say will be republished or broadcast without editing so that what you say in the context in which you say it is accurately recorded, you shouldn't talk to them. Because when you ask for a guarantee like that they won't give it to you."

DD: "No they won't. As you say you live and learn."

NG: "And, and that's the problem. You can have a, um, a good interview where you think you've got your point of view across and at least they're asking the right questions even if they're hard questions. But when they put it into a TV show or an interview it doesn't bear any resemblance to what you really said. And it's, um, you've just better off, ah, not saying anything."

DD: "Well put her across, she needs to go to sleep."

PD: "That's right."

DD: "...(inaudible)... yeah we're going to have to get going soon."

PD: "Yeah."

DD: "She's, do you know what? Bailey would just sleep in your arms. This one put me in bed or put me in the car seat."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 30 Sec 02)

NG: "Is she sleeping at night time Ditty?"

DD: "Oh yeah she is."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "She just, she just, she's not one of these babies that'll just fall asleep in your arms."

NG: "She looks like she's going to be tall. She's long and lean."

DD: "She's ...(inaudible)... growing hair too aren't you? Oh you're tired you are."

NG: "So is she alright with babysitters?"

DD: "She's a good little girl, she is a good little girl. She, we don't have trouble with her."

NG: "Is Santa coming for her?"

DD: "I was just talking to Susie, what do I do? I bought all these things for her to play with thinking by this stage she'd be walking and that."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "Walking and that."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "But put it all up in the toy room storage area."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "And she's seen it like most of it ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh."

DD: "And she's seen it. Just get her a few little Santa stockings she won't know."

NG: "Probably too young to, um, know what Santa is."

PD: "Oh yeah, yeah."

NG: "Til a year or so."

PD: "Yeah so don't go crazy"

DD: "She's right."

at the Starbucks meeting we talked about this

NG: "I was saying to Paul before I've got, um, ah, my best friend had, um, had enormous difficulty trying to fall pregnant and then, um, IVF and all the rest of it."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 31 Sec 01)

DD: "Yeah."

NG: "And all she's ever wanted to be is a mum. So not only does she eventually it works, but twins."

DD: "Oh."

NG: "So I've got."

PD: "that happens a lot"

NG: "Yeah so I've got, um, two goddaughters and."

DD: "How old are they?"

NG: "Ah, four and a half months."

DD: "Oh."

NG: "And, ah, you know I try and see them because I'm their godmother, you know, once, every week or."

DD: "Oh that's good."

NG: "Or ten days and, um, and in terms of what you're saying going crazy can't help it. They're little and."

DD: "Oh yeah know I'm a shocker, absolute shocker. And my girlfriend says Ditty she's just only a little girl. But I said I know but she looked cute you just have to. And then I said, I'm not doing pink I've been trying to do red and that."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "But then you look at her today and I think actually pink would look cuter."

NG: "Yeah. And she looks like a girl."

DD: "A little bit grumpy though."

NG: "Mm. So when's the."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "When's the next holiday planned?"

DD: "Yeah let's go back to Bali that was fun."

PD: "Yeah bloody oath."

Reference to me & sister meeting them in Bali

NG: "We've been back a few times since then, yeah."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 32 Sec 00)

DD: "How's your sister going?"

NG: "Yeah she's good."

DD: "Yeah."

NG: "She's good. She's still, um, ...(inaudible)... with, um, banks"

DD: "Oh really?"

NG: "But, um, she gets, because of the what's been happening with the economy."

DD: "Yeah."

NG:	"She's probably more busy than ...(inaudible)..."
DD:	"Bailey not out no Paul, Paul ...(inaudible)..."
NG:	"... with, um, with work."
PD:	"Bailey."
NG:	"So Bali's good."
PD:	"Not near the road."
NG:	"I think it's still a great place to go."
DD:	"...(inaudible)..."
NG:	"You haven't been back since then have you? Nah."
DD:	"No we've been to Queensland once."
NG:	"Yep."
DD:	"I don't want to do that again."
NG:	"Why?"
DD:	"With another family."
NG:	"Oh."
DD:	"And they thought every day you had to go to theme park, that's not my idea of a holiday, you know."
NG:	"No, no. Mine is just getting."
DD:	"And they kept on taking videos ...(inaudible)..."
Bailey:	"...(inaudible)..."
DD:	"Yeah it is. My son's at that age if I tell him there was one theme park."
NG:	"Yep."
DD:	"That's where we go."
NG:	"Yeah."
DD:	"And ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "No, no well you have ...(inaudible)..."

Bailey: "...(inaudible)..."

PD: "Don't stand on ...(inaudible)..."

DD: "Have you got a man?"

Bailey: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Not yet."

DD: "Too busy."

NG: "Um, yeah and still like, still in a fair degree of pain every day, um. Look Ditty by sort of 6 or 7 at night if, particularly if I've been cross-examining all day or in, like talking in court, by the time, you know, late afternoon/early evening the pain is pretty bad, um."

My medical condition

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah. It's getting, it has it's moments ...(inaudible)... before."

DD: "Yeah we're going in a minute mate."

NG: "Um, cold weather aggravates it enormously so, like anyone with ost with, um, arthritis. Um, and I just, you've got to have the energy, ah, and I can't be bothered, I cannot be bothered."

DD: "That's the thing and when you've got ...(inaudible)... that you can get so depressed."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "And you take, you probably struggle ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "... get yourself motivated."

NG: "And I've ...(inaudible)... anti-depressants, um, because of, ah, it's, you know, it's a vicious circle."

DD: "Yeah ...(inaudible)... thing."

NG: "Yeah and it's that, yeah. And you also become, um, very short-tempered with people."

DD: "Oh yeah."

NG: "Um, not 'cause you mean to be but because of the pain."

DD: "The pain causes that and no one else understands it."

NG: "That's right."

DD: "It's only you that's living with it."

NG: "That's right."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Well you, well you understand it from a clinical point of view."

All private medical stuff

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 34 Sec 00)

DD: "Oh yeah. You see some people coming in and they're under pain management for constant pain."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "And you can just, the grimacing on their face."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "And they come in and they're just like ..."

PD: "...(inaudible)..."

DD: "... want something ...(inaudible)... I don't know what more I can do for you."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "And it's real hard."

NG: "Yeah. I've got a really good, um, pain management physician at the Epworth who supervises everything. Um, but I haven't like, for example, um, a couple of weeks away when you're not under pressure and you're not lacking in sleep and you don't have to either talk to people or talk in court ..."

DD: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "... you always feel better. But that's just general health."

DD: "To see that, and your profession too, when you get a day that isn't full on and at the moment stress, stress, stress."

NG: "...(inaudible)..."

DD: "You drink a lot, I drink a lot now."

NG: "I can't with medication."

DD: "I can't."

NG: "I'm another."

DD: "At least ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "That's right. That's about the only thing."

DD: "So ...(inaudible)... I drink."

NG: "Well you look well you, all things considered."

DD: "Yeah."

NG: "So you're off clothes, clothes shopping I hear."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 35 Sec 00)

PD: "Yes, yes yeah I do me one shop a year so we'll do it today. I'm shopping as in ..."

NG: "Aren't you better off."

PD: "... this will be the summer shop."

NG: "Aren't you better off waiting 'til, um, after Christmas?"

DD: "No. Nicola."

NG: "No okay."

DD: "Do it today."

NG: "Oh okay."

PD: "I'll wait."

DD:	"No I get him, I get him into one shop and we'll go, we'll just go into the city Myer 'cause they've got all the different men's ...(inaudible)... in one."
NG:	"Yep."
DD:	"And I can only usually get him into one shop and only into the change room once."
NG:	"Right."
DD:	"...(inaudible)... and I'm stuffed. So we'll pile up."
NG:	"You sound like me, that's exactly what my sister has to do with me. I'm not a shopper."
PD:	"Oh I can't stand it, it drives me nuts."
NG:	"Me either. I can't stand just getting to the shopping centre and parking the car, that's enough for me."
PD:	"I go to a shopping centre and I'll go to the food court."
DD:	"Food court ...(inaudible)... shopping."
PD:	"But apart from that the only thing that interests me."
NG:	"So you'll mind, well you'll mind the kids."
PD:	"Yeah. But, ah, no."
NG:	"So when is your um.."
DD:	"Well I'm trying like trying to, I haven't bought a lot of stuff because I'm still not happy with my weight."
NG:	"Yeah."
DD:	"But I weigh, but now it's ...(inaudible)... I just say stuff and I just start buying things ..."
NG:	"Yeah."
DD:	"... to fit my body now."
NG:	"You look pretty good Ditty."
DD:	"Oh no."
NG:	"No?"

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 36 Sec 00)

DD: "I can't get rid of this. Anyway, personal training now, I do personal training once a week."

NG: "I had a personal trainer for a while but, um, ah, he went to gaol so I have to find a new one. Um."

DD: "Oh god, hope it is no one we know."

NG: "Oh no this is the things he's done before I, um, I ended up being introduced to him and when it came out and I ended up acting for him, so it was fine. But, um, I probably haven't been to a gym for about, oh maybe two and a half months. Just had some extreme pain."

DD: "Yeah that's you don't want to overkill ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "I can barely get through a day at work without thinking about getting up. The main thing that happened though, I was taking, um, have you heard of ~~Lirika~~, so it's prescribed to people with epilepsy actually but it was." Lyrica wrongly prescribed

DD: "I'd know, I'd know the actual generic name."

NG: "Yeah."

medical

DD: "But I don't know the trade name."

NG: "Well it was, um, I can't remember what it, but it was prescribed so that at night time my muscles would relax and I wouldn't wake up in pain."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 37 Sec 00)

DD: "Epilam would ...(inaudible)... Epilam."

NG: "Yeah, yeah, yeah. And, um, that was really good because I wouldn't wake up needing morphine in the morning. But it fucked me, I couldn't think straight."

DD: "Yep."

NG: "And I would muck, I couldn't wake up in the morning and it would take me 'til about, say I got up at 6, it would take me 'til about 10 a.m. for my brain to switch on."

DD: "And ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah that's exactly right."

DD: "Yeah sorry Paul we'll have to get going as well."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "You don't know what you're going to do over winter then?"

NG: "No I've got a, I don't know, I don't know, um."

DD: "Go."

NG: "Somewhere warm, somewhere warm."

DD: "What somewhere for work or take time off?"

NG: "I don't know, I'm just saying that, um, because of that osteoarthritis somewhere, a warm climate would be better so. Let's see, I can't afford to be away from work for the whole of winter I mean."

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "I'd be broke."

PD: "It wouldn't, you couldn't um."

DD: "Are you by yourself to do with work or have you got a couple of people?"

NG: "No still by myself."

PD: "There's not something you could explore by contacting someone north and ..."

NG: "Yeah ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "... come up for three months?"

NG: "Yeah something like that would be good."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 38 Sec 00)

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "But when's your next trip to Melbourne or when are you likely to be back?"

DD: "Yeah we'll back ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "Hopefully, ah, under our own steam."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Um."

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Ah, I really don't know to be honest, no."

NG: "Just depends."

PD: "About a couple of weeks we had a Christmas party in Geelong."

DD: "Is that your paper?"

NG: "No, nah."

PD: "We had a Christmas party in Geelong on the weekend we had to go down ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "And this weekend ...(inaudible)... to a 40th, but most of the stuff a function on or something."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Or something that we have to go to then, ah."

NG: "Then you ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "Actually I'll be in, I'll be here, definitely be here in, ah, February."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "Why?"

PD: "Um, franchisee meeting and all that in February I'll definitely be here then for a couple of days."

DD: "Oh yeah we're staying at the Hilton."

PD: "Yeah."

DD: "We're staying at the Hilton a couple of nights no kids."

NG: "Oh nice."

PD: "That's a definite time ..."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "... that I know I'm going to be, we'll be down."

NG: "And have you, have you still got the same email address Paul?"

PD: "No ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Hang on I've got it."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 39 Sec 00)

DD: "Here ...(inaudible)... I don't even know it."

PD: "Yeah. PD."

NG: "Hopefully no I'll give you mine just email me that it's easier."

PD: "Yep no worries."

DD: "[redacted]

PD: "[redacted]

DD: "[redacted]

PD: "[redacted]

NG: "Email."

PD: "Yep."

NG: "Because I think you, that's a newer one than what you had."

PD: "Yep, no worries."

NG: "But the other one I think is still, still works."

PD: "Yep."

DD: "And are you allowed to have, um, ~~if I was~~ are you guys allowed to ...(inaudible)...?" catch up.

PD: "Well I'm, I've actually been here to speak with her ..."

DD: "Beautiful so they can't ask you any questions now."

PD: "... um, the possibility that I could be charged with something serious and I'm here to seek legal advice."

DD: "...(inaudible)... did that all that time ago when he was here." Timmy ARGAN

PD: "Years ago, yeah."

DD: "Years ago when he was ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "...(inaudible)..."

DD: "...(inaudible)... because of privilege ...(inaudible)..." can't

NG: "Yeah."

PD: "Yeah he was able to knock out before the ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "...(inaudible)..."

PD: "They wouldn't, they wouldn't me play, like they wouldn't just wouldn't let me allow to. Look the end of the day all they had to do was say, yeah, yeah I know her and yeah I bloody."

DD: "For goodness sake you're just friends."

NG: "But do you know what?"

PD: "There's nothing."

NG: "So what."

PD: "There was nothing, there was really, really nothing."

Add into 2nd statement

Consciousness of guilt lie in front of his wife

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 40 Sec 00)

DD: "You're just friends."

NG: "What part of?"

PD: "I just, I just, I just took the, I just took the stand that you don't have to put me, it was the first time your name had ever been brought up to me and ...(inaudible)... and I ...(inaudible)... yep."

NG: "Yeah but Paul there's part of it that you're in, um, you're in a."

PD: "Not ...(inaudible)..."

Bailey: "...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Yeah but you're almost in, um, in the dark insofar as you don't know what Carl, for example, has said."

PD: "No I don't, no."

NG: "No."

PD: "No."

NG: "Who knows what?"

PD: "Yeah."

NG: "Who knows where they're coming from?"

PD: "Exactly, exactly. Look."

NG: "Well have a nice pleasant afternoon shopping."

PD: "Yeah."

Bailey: "...(inaudible)... daddy first."

NG: "And, um, that'll be interesting to see whether, um, I get, um, a summons or some, some contact as a consequence of whoever's followed you here."

PD: "Yeah exactly. Ah well no but they would have know my phone was to you."

NG: "Yep."

PD: "Openly to ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "Oh that's true yep."

DD: "Do you know what?"

PD: "As you say it's probably ..."

DD: "As I say to Paul I think."

PD: "... to be open sometimes than not."

DD: "Yes. Well the fact that you, we're meeting for coffee and that they know that we know that they watch every move."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "So it would be dumb if we had some bad relationship with you meeting you? No. But wouldn't the coppers would think that? I think they are."

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 41 Sec 02)

NG: "Oh I don't know, I think you give up in trying to, um, predict."

DD: "Yeah."

NG: "Or work out the why's and what's behind something. Who, who would know? Um."

PD: "So no look I, um."

NG: "Anyway, have a wonderful Christmas."

PD: "Yeah, yeah."

NG: "I hope Santa comes to you."

PD: "Yep no worries."

NG: "And next year will be a better year you hope."

PD: Getting "Get it in writing ...(inaudible)..." — incorrectly t'scribed

NG: "And when are you going back to work early next year?"

DD: "Yeah he's hassling me every day to come back."

NG: "Yeah at hospital?"

DD: "I'm going to hospital."

NG: "Yeah."

DD: "And back at Apco every day. I'm sick of him going, what have you done today, nothing?"

NG: "No I've got it, I've got it."

DD: "Anyway I'm looking forward to it."

NG: "Yep."

DD: "A year off has actually been a bit boring."

Bailey: "Dad I'm going with you okay alright?"

PD: "Yep."

DD: "There's only so many lunches that you can have and, you know."

NG: "...(inaudible)... adults ...(inaudible)... too."

Bailey: "When are we, when are we stopping?"

DD: "I'm not into this ...(inaudible)..."

NG: "No you weren't ...(inaudible)... I remember."

DD: "Do you?"

(Track 1 Hrs 02 Min 42 Sec 00)

NG: "I remember. God he ...(inaudible)..."

PD: "We'll have a look."

NG: "He's ...(inaudible)..."

DD:	"Take care."
NG:	"Yeah I will. Look after yourself so, um."

Bailey:	"I'm going with dad, mum."
PD:	"It's good to chat."
NG:	"Well email me if you need to."
PD:	"Yeah."
NG:	"Okay?"
DD:	"We are down in February we should be able to. We'll have to meet you in the day because you go to bed early."
NG:	"I do actually. Look I'm hoping that after a bit of time off over January that, um, which especially when I don't talk for a while, um, the pain's not as bad when you're not under pressure."
PD:	"Yep."
