After a number of preliminary phone calls, I met with MFG13 on Friday the 1st of October 1999. She did not have any new information and she was mainly interested in how the investigation was progressing. She had stated that [REDACTED] has moved into his new office [REDACTED] and the office is very extravagent.

She is still in regular contact with him, and is being briefed by him on a regular basis.

I informed her that the investigation is progressing slowly, and we are awaiting the end of the Lambert trial in the County Court.
