Miss Nicola M Gobbo

Dear Miss Gobbo

2013-14 Local Practising Certificate

Please find enclosed your practising certificate for the period from 01 July 2013 to 30 June 2014.

Practising certificate conditions

In addition to the conditions appearing on the face of your practising certificate, you are also subject to the following statutory conditions:

- you must not hold another local or interstate practising certificate that is in force during the currency of your practising certificate (s. 2.4.3(8) of the Legal Profession Act 2004 ("the Act")); and
- you must not contravene a condition imposed on your admission to the legal profession under a corresponding law (s. 2.4.17).

Engaging in legal practice outside the scope of the conditions on your practising certificate is a ground for amending, suspending or cancelling a local practising certificate, and may also warrant disciplinary and/or compliance action.

If you are authorised to engage in legal practice as a principal or employee of a law practice, or as a corporate legal practitioner, you may also engage in legal practice as a volunteer at a community legal centre.

Change of information

The Board is required to maintain a public register of local legal practitioners, locally registered foreign lawyers and law practices. Pursuant to s. 6.2.24 of the Act, practitioners are required to notify the Board of any change to the information held on the register within 14 days after the change occurs. Failure to do so constitutes a breach of the Act.

It is your responsibility to renew your practising certificate by 30 April each year. For further information, please contact:

- for solicitors, the Law Institute of Victoria on (03) 9607 9508 or at pcrenewals@liv.asn.au; or
- for barristers, the Victorian Bar on (03) 9225 7111 or at pcrenewals@vicbar.com.au.

Yours faithfully,
