

MS GOBBO: No.

Sandy White-O : But we don't want to put you in the position where you might - - -

MS GOBBO: That's right.

Sandy White-O - - - breach some - - -

MS GOBBO: Yeah.

Sandy White-O - - - confidentiality. So I guess what I'm saying - - -

MS GOBBO:

Sandy White-O : - - - to you there was you're going to take your own counsel about what's a problem, what's not a problem.
And don't feel that would try and question you about those sort of matters. Or if it gets to that point where you don't want to talk about it, well, cool - - -

MS GOBBO: Mm.

Sandy White-O : - - - you'd tell us anyway - - -

Peter Smith-O Yeah.

Sandy White-O

MS GOBBO: Mm. Anyway so he was being - - -

Peter Smith-O Yeah.

MS GOBBO: He has been advised that not to discuss his case any length on the phone, which is - I don't really - I don't necessarily think that the way the affidavit's raised means that somebody's heard him say that on the phone - - -

Peter Smith-O Mm'hm.

MS GOBBO: - - - may well be, who knows. What I tend to think - so I feel I - affidavit based on therefore probably an OPI or ESD warrant, that's more likely to be me or Solicitor 2 than his phone. Well, then again who knows. Part of the reason where he came in yesterday because he's - - -

Peter Smith-O : Hang on, sorry why would ESD look at you?

MS GOBBO: They wouldn't. But I'm saying the only reason they could would be, let's say if it's an OPI affidavit - - -

Peter Smith-O Yeah, yeah.

MS GOBBO: - - - and it's based on OPI Police or intelligence or something - - -

Peter Smith-O Mm'hm.

Sandy White-O : This is an affidavit for what purpose?
