	As a responsible for Mousie's predicament + situation that was passed that they have helped secure extradition - should this not be brought to attention of clients or state prosecutors? I don't know the nature of charges or if into previous more a difference, however if extradition was immediately denied then the position have taken may be defective. J.P. will need to see the this matter will the Brian how common you do it you could have done to this - Re: to the + reference to material on file the we had extensive some works - have come in Brian
1030	Meet with Brian with - brief some impressive the need for the various considerations with this work & background to some - have provided of 3 x pieces of correspondence to Brian (1) Refer to A/C for making a review of email (2) National table (ICA's of INTERACT re 3838) (3) More substantial material table in my notes + observations made when issues of concern identified - noted that this was not exhaustive & due to use of case I may have only identified some of the matters of potential concern. Brian comprehensively as to background & relevant matters - how I thought Brian the and further explore such matters & the likely implications of this with SSD staff. call Jeff Re - Advice of legal times & electronic material provided -
