STATES:

My full name is Mr Bickley My full details are known to police.

I make this statement in the belief that anything contained in it cannot be used against me in any criminal proceeding.

I have made 3 previous statements to police relating to my involvement in the manufacture of ecstasy. I wish to make the following addition to these statements.

In some time during 2005, I think it was early 2005 Tony MOKBEL was dropped off around the corner from my factory by someone driving a red Honda Civic. This is the same red Honda Civic I have mentioned in my earlier statement.

Tony came into the factory and told me that he had a mate coming to pick up some chemicals and also told me that his mate would drop off some chemicals that he wanted destroyed. He told me he would give me a bit of extra cash to get rid of these chemicals. I knew at this time that the chemicals Tony referred to was waste product.

A couple of minutes later a male in a white ute with a silver tray, I think it may have been a Holden Rodeo came to the factory. The male driving the ute was an older male, probably in his mid – late 40's. He was wearing an Akubra type hat. I remember that he had a slouched posture and he was wearing a flannelette shirt, with boots and pants. I noticed that the male had a number of drums on the back of his ute that he had covered with a tarp and tied down.

Tony introduced me to him however I cannot remember his name. I referred to him as the farmer because of how he was dressed. Tony told me to give
