She supplied anecdotal information regarding various clients she had appeared for but no significant information that assisted the investigation. During this interview she stated that there was more than one official police document circulating in the broader community. She made specific mention that only recently a police information report was placed in her mail box at her chambers. She did not know who had sent the information report to her and did not provide any further details to identify the document but did state that the information report in no way related to the murder investigation. She stated that there was a huge amount of information interchange between criminals and within the criminal community it is a regular practice to share documents that one criminal obtains during discovery with other criminals. She also stated that in relation to how these documents are obtained by criminals that there were numerous possibilities, including lawfully obtained in 8A material during discovery and leaks. She confirmed that there were definitely leaks from the Melbourne Magistrates Court. She was not specifically questioned regarding the information report that she had received for tactical reasons to leave the way clear for further investigation by Ethical Standards member Det/Insp Kedge and Det/Sgt Daniliuk.
