Royal Commission into the Management of Police Informants

SUPPLEMENTARY STATEMENT OF JASON PETER KELLY

1. My full name is Jason Peter Kelly. I am employed by Victoria Police and hold the rank of Superintendent, attached to the Information, Systems and Security Command. I commenced in this role in February 2019.
2. I have previously provided a statement to the Royal Commission dated 12 June 2019. I make this further statement to supplement paragraph 53 of that statement.
3. In paragraph 53 of my previous statement, I refer to other contact I had with Ms Gobbo in her capacity as a barrister. Since preparing my statement, I have remembered another such instance of contact with Ms Gobbo.
4. My diary notes record that on 3 March 2009 I was involved in an examination conducted by another law enforcement agency. The subject of that examination was a person associated with organised crime networks. My diary notes do not record whether Ms Gobbo represented that person in relation to the examination, but I have an independent recollection that she did.
5. My diary notes also record that the person who was the subject of the examination was arrested on 11 March 2009. Again, my diary notes do not record whether Ms Gobbo represented that person following their arrest. While I cannot precisely recall whether Ms Gobbo acted for this person in relation to their arrest, I believe that she may have.

Dated: 25 June 2019
