John O'Connor replaying voicemail from Nicola Gobbo

AUTOMATED VOICE: ...Is AM

GOBBO: John, it is Nic calling. I thought I'd lost my mind this morning and admittedly I am very ill and I'm actually calling from my surgeon's office as I await um finding out details of what will be my 11th operation in 10 months. The reason for my call is to let you know that you really ought to check with um the solicitors that act for Victoria Police because the letter that I received from your solicitors yesterday that states that I am to contact the officer in charge at your office in relation to any discussion concerning [REDACTED] Um, that is something that I do want to speak to someone about but I don't want to speak to you about it. For obvious reasons. You were very uncomfortable speaking to me this morning or um or at least if not uncomfortable um didn't like the fact that you had to speak to me so that's if you can clarify with your solicitors who it is I'm supposed to speak to considering the letter says um blah blah blah [REDACTED] we invite you or your client to contact Officer in Charge Victoria Police Source Development Unit on this number. Um, clearly there's some problem considering you say you've got nothing to do with that and yet your own solicitors are telling me that the only person to speak to in the whole of Victoria Police is you. Um, could you please just let me know the name of a person to speak to please um don't send in a letter via my solicitors because they no longer act for me. Thank you.
