Replaying voicemail message from Witness F dated 08/10/2010

O'CONNOR: Uhh time is 12pm on Friday the 15th of October. Uhh Detective Inspector John O'Connor uhh just playing a phone call from Witness F dated the 8th of October on the message bank phone.

AUTOMATED VOICE: You have 1 saved voice message. To listen to saved messages, press 7--You have 1 saved message. Received 8th October at 5:31pm.

GOBBO: Hi, Nicola calling. Urgent message for John O'Connor or somebody else who cares, if there is anybody there? I have just received a phone call from that idiot Liam Houlihan, from the Herald Sun, saying that they are running an article tomorrow um essentially to badmouth Overland. Did I have any comment to make, of course not. I mean I do, but not publicly. And um more importantly they're going to um uhh name an amount that they say I received. Um I unequivocally told Liam I could not comment but I also told him he would be in breach of Supreme Court orders and more importantly that it would endanger my life because I received death threats from the last ridiculous publication of amounts of money. So, letting you know in case you want to do something. I have made sure that idiot at the VGRS knows because he may or may not want to take some action to stop the article being published. Anyway, matter for somebody else, because not much else I can do except stay home and try to be safe. Um and hopefully no more death threats. Anyway, if you've got a query um give me a call back. Thanks bye.
