DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Time is 11 minutes past 8. I'm about to ring Witness F, Nicola Gobbo, on the - on her mobile phone. Today's date is Wednesday the 15th of September.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Nicola, it's John O'Connor.

WITNESS F: Hi.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: How are you?

WITNESS F: Pretty bad, actually. I was - - -

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Do you want me to ring back tomorrow?

WITNESS F: No, no, no, no.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: I got you - I got your message that you're out of hospital.

WITNESS F: Yeah, yeah, I'm just a bit limited in being able to walk very far and I'm not supposed to be driving but, you know, but if - I've just gotta pray and hope that there's [REDACTED].

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Sorry, that there's?

WITNESS F: [REDACTED].

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Oh.

WITNESS F: I keep getting these, like, this is the - the ninth general anaesthetic, ninth lot of surgery, so I'm - [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED].

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Mm.

WITNESS F: Anyway, might have a new illness that's named after me. I'm pretty - I'm pretty stressed by it and

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: You have to speak up, Nicola.

WITNESS F: Pardon?

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: You'll have to speak up.

WITNESS F: Sorry, my - I've got a [REDACTED] in my face.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Oh, right, O.K.

WITNESS F: Constant, doesn't - doesn't change, but nothing I can do with any of it except just try and work out what I'm gunna do in the future.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Yep.

WITNESS F: I did, I did speak - Rob Karam who I have, like - I should have some concerns in relation - Jay Malkoun is his buddy but nothing - nothing that I could potentially pick up the phone and ring triple 0 and say, "This is gunna happen," other than, you know, I know where Jay Malkoun fits in, bkie gangs mates and - they're not good people, but anyway. Nothing that I can run away from.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Last time we spoke you said you wanted to speak to [REDACTED]

WITNESS F: Yep.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Do you still want that to occur?

WITNESS F: Yeah, I don't - I don't see - - -

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: When - when do you - - -

WITNESS F: - - - there's any downside it.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: When - when do you feel that you'll be in a position physically to be able to meet with them?

WITNESS F: Um - - -

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Or talk - or - - -

WITNESS F: Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Yep.

WITNESS F: Is that O.K.?

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: I don't know, I'll have to - I'll have to make a phone call. So Tuesday or Wednesday next week. Are you able to take a phone call before then if it's - - -

WITNESS F: Yeah, yeah, 'cause I've - yep. Yeah, no problem.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: All right. It may be with your physical condition that it may just be easier if - if they're to speak to you - it may - I dunno - I have to speak to them and see what - see what - what they wanna do. Yeah, so look, I'll - I'll - I'll make those inquiries and then I'll get back to you.

WITNESS F: O.K. That'd be - that'd be great.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: All right, I'm gunna be out of the office all day tomorrow so I might be able to get back to you - I'm not a hundred per cent sure when I'll get back to you. All right?

WITNESS F: No, no, no, no hurry. And the other thing is to do a - going to think about the Carl Williams - - -

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Yep. Yeah, so yeah, sorry, your point is?

WITNESS F: So you were - I - I mentioned Carl Williams and you said you were going to either have a think about it or see what the situation might be.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Yeah, that's still ongoing so - - -

WITNESS F: O.K.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: All right. So you rest up and I'll be back to you in the near future.

WITNESS F: All right, thank you very much.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Take care.

WITNESS F: See ya, bye.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: Bye.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR O'CONNOR: The time is now 17 minutes past 8.
