

out of the murder or um people who may have been there, um may know of it and had no involvement. I'm talking about people who actually had involvement."

O'BRIEN: "Yeah well that's all we're interested in – who had actual involvement in the murder."

Mr Gregory

"...not knowledge only"

O'BRIEN: "What's that?"

Mr Gregory

"Not ... You could say that um Dave WATERS had knowledge, Bluey Bob had knowledge, um what was their knowledge?"

O'BRIEN: "Yeah."

TRICHIAS: "You've got to have more than just ah knowledge"

Mr Gregory

"I'm just gonna go as far as I've gone with them."

TRICHIAS: "...with who"

Mr Gregory

"I'm not gonna expand on this Jim."

O'BRIEN: "No. But I mean"

Mr Gregory

"Keeping my word to you is making a statement."

O'BRIEN: "Yeah. What I'm saying to you is if it's relevant to the charge and relevant to the murder investigation well we'd like to have it in the statement. Um, like if someone's told you something and said if you need to get the address, speak to him. We'd like to know that. We'd like to have that in the statement. Merely from the point of view, all right that person may never get charged investigation that would have commenced that day”

Mr Gregory

“To see if he.”

O'BRIEN:

“Sorry.”

“And the third reason to see if he had any news in relation to the investigation that would have commenced that day in relation to the murder of CHARTRES-ABBOTT. There was no news that he had to give me or assist me with. In other words there was nothing remarkable about that morning's event. The killing of CHARTRES-ABBOTT and my decision to hand myself in and have a Warrant executed on me on the same day as the murder was a prearranged schedule discussed prior to the murder by myself, Peter LALOR and maybe others. The discussion in relation to my obtaining of the adjournment was in the presence of a number of others including myself and LALOR. The discussion in relation to the Warrant execution providing me with an alibi for the murder was had between myself and Peter LALOR. Peter already knew that CHARTRES-ABBOTT was going to be killed. I don't remember the discussion but the whole idea was me having an alibi and part of it was my going to the Police Station that day. I previously thought David WATERS was there but he may have not. But I recollect that he may have set the meeting up between me and Stash. This discussion took place one week to one day prior to the murder of CHARTRES-ABBOTT. Again this discussion took place at the Canada Hotel in Carlton. Due to the discussions held with Peter LALOR and others and by virtue of his knowledge in relation to the need of information in relation to the onset of investigation into the CHARTRES-ABBOTT
